FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Dkt. C-2858]

California and Hawaiian Sugar Company, et al.; Prohibited Trade Practices and Affirmative Corrective Actions

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission. ACTION: Modifying order.

SUMMARY: This order reopens a 1977 consent order that settled allegations that the respondents deceptively advertised that sugar derived from Hawaiian sugar cane is different from or superior to other sugars, particularly those derived from beets. This order modifies the consent order so that the respondents may make claims about objective differences in granulated white sugars with respect to health, safety, nutritional quality, or purity, as long as it has competent and reliable evidence to substantiate such claims. The Commission found that the public interest warranted reopening and modifying the 1977 order.

DATES: Consent order issued January 6, 1977. Modifying order issued January 17, 1995.¹

Levi Strauss & Co.; Prohibited Trade Practices and Affirmative Corrective Actions

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission. ACTION: Modifying order.

SUMMARY: This order reopens a 1978 consent order that settled allegations that the respondent had engaged in a number of anticompetitive practices, including fixing the resale prices at which retailers sold its products, and modifies the consent order by adding a provision to clarify that the order does not prohibit conduct by the respondent that is necessary to form and operate wholly-owned retail stores, or retail stores partially owned by the respondent in lawful joint ventures. The Commission found that the respondent had satisfactorily met its burden of showing that changed conditions of fact required the modification.

DATES: Consent order issued July 12, 1978. Modifying order issued December 20, 1994.¹
