FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Notice of 60-Day Extension in Comment Period on Its Rule Governing Informal Dispute Settlement Mechanisms ("Rule 703")

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Request for public comments.

SUMMARY: The Federal Trade Commission ("the Commission" or "FTC") has extended the date by which comments must be submitted concerning the review of its Rule governing Informal Dispute Settlement Mechanisms, 16 CFR part 703 ("Rule 703"). This notice informs prospective participants of the change and sets a new date of August 1, 1997, for the end of the comment period.

On April 2, 1997, the Commission published a request for comments on its review of Rule 703, which specifies the minimum standards which must be met by any informal dispute settlement mechanism that is incorporated into the written warranty of a consumer product and which the consumer must use prior to pursuing any legal remedies in court. By letters dated May 23, 1997, the American Automobile Manufacturers Association ("AAMA") and the National Association of Attorneys General ("NAAG") both requested an extension of time in order to compile cost and other data relating to the Rule's impact. In order to provide sufficient time for these and other interested parties to compile factual material in response to the request for comments, the Commission has extended until August 1, 1997, the date by which comments must be received.

DATES: Written comments will be received until the close of business on August 1, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be directed to: Secretary, Federal Trade Commission, Room H-159, Sixth and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580. Comments should be identified as "Rule 703—Comment."

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Carole I. Danielson (202) 326-3115, Division of Marketing Practices, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 2, 1997, the Commission requested comments about the overall costs and benefits of its Rule Governing Informal Dispute Settlement Procedures, 16 CFR Part 703 ("Rule 703") and the overall regulatory and economic impact of the Rule as part of its systematic review of all current Commission regulations and guides. The request was made as part of the Commission's determination, as part of its oversight responsibilities, to review rules and guides periodically. Pursuant to these reviews, the Commission seeks information about the costs and benefits of the rules and guides under review, as well as their regulatory and economic impact. The information obtained will assist the Commission in identifying rules and guides that warrant modification or rescission. The comment period closes June 2, 1997.

The AAMA and NAAG have stated that they require additional time to complete compilation of the requested information and have requested that the comment period be extended in order to permit them to complete their data collection and response. Although the Commission is mindful of the need to deal with this matter expeditiously, the Commission is also aware that the issues raised are complex and believes that the enhancement of the record that will be achieved by extending the comment period outweighs any harm that might be caused by the delay.

Accordingly, the Commission has decided to extend the comment period to August 1, 1997. This extension will provide sufficient time for commenters to complete their data collection.
