Subject: Item 4(c) Issue

Mike, a client of mine is hesitant to submit the entire minutes of a board of directors meeting because of confidentiality concerns. A few pages of the minutes could otherwise qualify as 4(c) material because there is a discussion of the impact of the transaction. Is it acceptable to simply submit those pages or does the FTC PNO require the submission of the entire board minutes?

Thanks for your help.

Regards,
Andre
