Re: Hart-Scott - Rodino
Premerger Notification

Dear Mr. Scanlon:

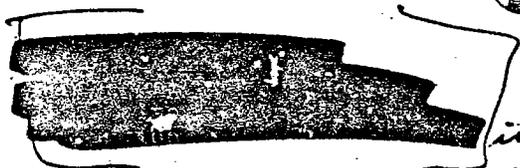

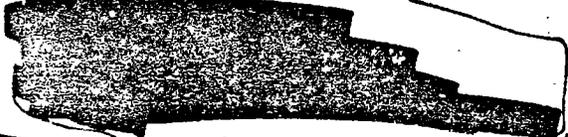

The purpose of this letter is to request documentation for our files of your representations made in our telephone conversation regarding completion of the Premerger Notification.

ITEM 5 - Based upon our discussion, you have indicated that when the person filing notification, in this case a general partnership (A), has an investment in another partnership (B), that the revenues of (B) would not be reported in item 5.

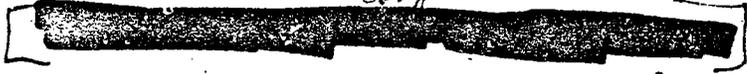

ITEM 6a - In accordance with the above representation, you have also indicated that partnership (B) would not be deemed as an entity within the person filing notification.

If you are in agreement with the above statements, we would appreciate your response by return mail. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

11/6/84 Called Embury - He is not available. told his secretary that we do not respond by mail but that I agree with the statements in this letter & confirm his understanding
