MANUFACTURER WARRANTY

THE MANUFACTURER MAY PAY FOR CERTAIN REPAIRS. It is almost industry standard now for a new car, truck, van, or SUV to come with some sort of manufacturer warranty. This used vehicle may be eligible for some of these protections.

☐

DEALER WARRANTY

LIMITED WARRANTY. Ask the dealer for a copy of the warranty, and for any documents that explain warranty coverage, what is and is not covered, and the dealer's repair obligations. You may have additional rights under your state's laws.

INSPECTIONS AND RECONDITIONING:

DEALER INSPECTED

THE DEALER HAS PERFORMED A PRE-PURCHASE INSPECTION. A certified mechanic or automotive technician has inspected the cosmetic, mechanical, and safety condition of this vehicle. Ask the dealer for a copy of the results

NO PRE PURCHASE INSPECTION

THE DEALER HAS NOT PERFORMED A PRE-PURCHASE INSPECTION. You should have a pre-purchase inspection done by a qualified mechanic or automotive technician prior to purchase. A basic PPI will cost $100 to $200.

VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT:

DEALER WILL PROVIDE A VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT

THE DEALER HAS RUN A VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT. The vehicle history report provided should cover accidents and service reported, mileage, title brands, number of owners, open recalls, and other potentially important issues from a vehicle's past

NO VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT

THE DEALER HAS NOT RUN A VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT. You should obtain a vehicle history report prior to purchasing this vehicle. The report you obtain should include information about title brands, total losses, accidents, mileage, owners, service and maintenance, and airbag deployments.
