

Question Card

Kathy:

The FSC standard was the first forestry certification standard developed for the U.S. and continues to be supported by the environmental NGO community over

SFI, which came later and still falls short of the ecological + social criteria

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION of FSC.

Do you plan to harmonize the two standards to eliminate the existing competition between these two important certifications?

- Shannon Binns
Environmental Paper Network