

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my support for Trader Joes opening a store in Portland, Maine. Anytime I have visited a state that has Trader Joes stores, I have really enjoyed the variety and quality of products there. It would be a great addition to Portland. Hope they open soon!

Shelley Hodges