U.S. v. Linda Brown Massey	A guilty plea obtained from an individual for illegal money transmission business, a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1960. Evidence presented at the change of plea hearing established that a co-conspirator, who is currently believed to be residing on the Indian subcontinent, contacted Linda Massey and told her he needed someone in the US to open a bank account, receive payments, and send money to him in India. He allegedly told Massey that she could keep 10 percent of the funds collected if she transmitted the remaining 90 percent to him. He then instructed her to create a limited liability company known as Prime Technologies.
