Docket No. 9379

COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT BENCO DENTAL SUPPLY CO.'S RENEWED MOTION FOR IN CAMERA TREATMENT OF TRIAL EXHIBITS

Complaint Counsel seeks an open and public trial, subject to the narrow exception in Commission Rule 3.45(b). That Rule sets a strict standard and high burden for Respondents seeking to withhold documents from the public record. As explained in this Court's October 11, 2018 Order on Respondents' Motions for In Camera Treatment ("Order"), Respondent Benco Dental Supply Co. ("Benco" or "Respondent") must demonstrate why disclosure of identified documents, or portions thereof, would result in clearly defined, serious injury to meet this strict standard and avoid denial of its motion. As to expert reports, the Order required Respondent to prepare any in camera versions after the Court issued an order on these pending motions. Complaint Counsel opposes certain redactions of investigational hearing and deposition transcripts containing information that is already part of the public record in this matter. Complaint Counsel also opposes premature redaction of expert reports. Complaint Counsel does not oppose full or partial in camera treatment of other exhibits, or portions thereof, identified by Respondent.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, Complaint Counsel respectfully requests that the Court deny Respondent's Renewed Motion for In Camera Treatment of Trial Exhibits as to certain portions of the exhibits and expert reports identified below.

I. STATEMENT OF FACTS

On October 11, 2018, the Court denied Respondent's motion for in camera treatment of over 200 potential trial exhibits without prejudice and allowed Respondent to file a renewed motion no later than October 19, 2018. Order at 8. Respondent filed its Renewed Motion for In Camera Treatment ("Second Mot.") on October 19, 2018. Respondent groups the documents into five categories: (1) Customer-Specific Price and Volume Information; (2) Pricing Strategy Information; (3) Information Regarding Price-Setting Process; (4) Business Plans; and (5) Sensitive Personal Information. Respondent submitted a declaration of its interim General Counsel, Rebecca Warren, in support of its motion. Second Mot., Exhibit A.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Commission Rule 3.45(b), the Court may grant a request for in camera treatment "only after finding that its public disclosure will likely result in a clearly defined, serious injury to the person, partnership, or corporation requesting in camera treatment or after finding that the material constitutes sensitive personal information." 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b) (emphasis added). The applicant must "make a clear showing that the information concerned is sufficiently secret and sufficiently material to their business that disclosure would result in serious competitive injury." Order at 2 (quoting In re General Foods Corp., 95 F.T.C. 352, 1980 FTC LEXIS 99, at *10

<sup>1</sup> In an email on October 23, 2018, attached hereto as Exhibit A, Benco's counsel withdrew its claim for in camera treatment of CX1100 and CX8037 at 183:23-25, 184:11-16, and 209:6-7.

(Mar. 10, 1980)). If the applicant makes this showing, the Court weighs it against the primary reason favoring disclosure – the importance of the information in explaining the rationale of FTC decisions. Order at 2. As this Court recently explained, there is a “substantial public interest in holding all aspects of adjudicative proceedings, including the evidence adduced therein, open to all interested persons.” Id. (quoting In re H.P. Hood & Sons, Inc., 58 F.T.C. 1184, 1961 FTC LEXIS 368, at *5-6 (Mar. 14, 1961)). A full and open trial record “promotes public understanding” of the Commission’s decisions, “provides guidance to those affected by its actions,” and “helps to deter potential violators of the laws the Commission enforces.” Id.

Respondent bears the burden of showing good cause to withhold materials from the public record. Id. (citing Hood, 58 F.T.C. at 1188). An affidavit or declaration “is always required” to explain sufficiently why the information is secret and material and why disclosure would cause serious harm. Id.; see also In the Matter of Otto Bock Healthcare N. Am., 2018 WL 3491602, at *3 (July 2, 2018). For information more than three years old, there is a presumption against in camera treatment, defeated only by affidavit or declaration that such material remains competitively sensitive. Order at 2 (internal citations omitted).

If Respondent meets the burden, the length of time granted for in camera treatment depends on whether the material consists of ordinary business records or trade secrets. Order at 3 (citing Hood, 58 F.T.C. at 1189). Trade secrets, like secret formulas, technical information, processes, or privileged information, may merit indefinite in camera treatment “in unusual circumstances.” Id. (quoting 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b)(3)). To receive indefinite protection, applicants must show that the need for confidentiality is “not likely to decrease over time” and that the circumstances giving rise to a serious injury “are likely to be forever present.” Id. (quoting In re E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., 1990 FTC LEXIS 134, at *2-3 (April 25, 1990)). In contrast, ordinary business records, like pricing information, customer names, financial information, business plans, marketing plans, and sales documents, typically receive two- to five-year protection from disclosure. Id. (citing In re McWane, Inc., 2012 FTC LEXIS 143 (Aug. 17, 2012); In re ProMedica Health Sys., 2011 FTC LEXIS 101 (May 25, 2011)).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Respondent Fails to Show Disclosure of Certain Documents Containing Information on the Public Docket Will Result in Serious Competitive Injury

This Court required in camera treatment requests for transcripts of investigational hearings and depositions specify pages and line numbers, which must be “narrowly tailored to cover only those portions of the transcripts that contain competitively sensitive information.” Id.; see also In re Unocal, 2004 FTC LEXIS 197, *4-5 (Oct. 7, 2004). Respondent has now identified portions of 18 transcripts and states that it has “precisely redact[ed] only those particular clauses or portions of exhibits containing competitively sensitive information.” Second Mot. at 6. A review of those redactions shows that Respondent seeks in camera protection for portions containing information already on the public docket, including through testimony of Benco’s executive Charles Cohen elicited by Benco’s counsel. “Documents that are already on the public record are not secret” nor is public testimony in open court. Order at 6. Complaint Counsel opposes the following redactions of transcripts,<sup>2</sup> which contain public information:

<sup>3</sup> Respondent has redacted certain portions of CX1078 for in camera treatment, but it has not redacted the portions of CX1078 included in the redacted testimony.

B. Respondent's Redactions for In Camera Treatment of Expert Reports Is Premature and Improper

This Court ordered Respondent to prepare any public and in camera versions of expert reports “once the orders on pending in camera treatment motions are issued.” Order at 7. Benco’s premature redactions requesting in camera treatment of reports of both side’s experts disregards this Court’s order and is improper.<sup>4</sup>

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, as to redaction of transcripts and expert reports identified above, Complaint Counsel respectfully requests that the Court deny Respondent’s Renewed Motion for In Camera Treatment of Trial Exhibits.

Lin,

Thanks very much for the discussion earlier this afternoon and for your message.

CX1084: Thank you for agreeing to use our redacted version of CX1084 in court tomorrow. We maintain our motion for in camera treatment of the portions of CX1084 that we have designated. Your use of our redacted version of CX1084 will permit us to complete Mr. Cohen's testimony on schedule tomorrow, and we can revisit this issue subsequently.

CX1100: Because this document was only a draft and is now four or more years old, we withdraw our claim for in camera treatment of this exhibit. (Please note that this does not alter our claim for in camera treatment of any final document, or any more recent draft, containing similar subject matter.)

CX8037 (deposition transcript of Patrick Ryan): We withdraw our claim for in camera treatment of the three designations you raised with us:

- Page 183: lines 23-25
- Page 209: lines 6-7

Thank you for raising these issues before the testimony of Mr. Cohen and Mr. Ryan over the next two days. Please let us know if you anticipate any other issues regarding documents or testimony designated for in camera treatment.

Best regards,

Geoff

Subject: Benco's In Camera Motion

Ken,

It appears that Benco is seeking in camera treatment for documents which have already been used in open court, as well as general testimony relating to subjects discussed in open court. These documents and testimony are already in the public domain and are no longer confidential. Benco has waived any argument that these materials require in camera treatment.

Because this impacts our examination of Patrick Ryan and redirect of Chuck Cohen, we need to meet and confer about this tomorrow. If we are not able to resolve this, we plan to raise this with Judge Chappell Wednesday morning.

Please let me know what time you're available tomorrow.
