MONETARY JUDGMENT AND SUSPENSION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment in the amount of Two Million Thirty-Two Thousand Six Hundred and Twenty-Six dollars ($2,032,626.00), is entered against Stipulating Defendants, jointly and severally, as equitable monetary relief. The judgment is suspended subject to the provisions of the Subsections below.

B. The Commission's agreement to the suspension of the monetary judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Stipulating Defendants' representations regarding their financial conditions, as set forth in the transcripts of the depositions of the Individual Defendants taken on February 14 and 15, 2013, and on the financial statements provided to the Commission and attached as exhibits to those transcripts (collectively, "financial representations").

C. D. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents unjust enrichment alleged in the Complaint), less any amounts already paid plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

G. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

H. Stipulating Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers) which they previously submitted to

I. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.
