

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20580

Office of the Secretary

April 11, 2014

Eric Dela Pena

Thank you for the letter that you submitted in connection with Toys “R” Us, Inc.’s (“TRU”) Petition to Reopen and Modify Final Order, which you filed on January 25, 2014. TRU requested that the Commission modify the Order to eliminate Paragraphs II.A., II.B., and II.C., and alter Paragraph IV.B.

In your letter, you recount the lawsuit between TRU and Amazon.com and discuss TRU’s online sales. In evaluating TRU’s Petition, the Commission analyzed all of the information available to it, including the public comments. As a result of that analysis, the Commission concluded that TRU has met its burden in showing that changed conditions of fact justify modifying the Order in the ways requested in the Petition. It has, thus, determined to reopen and modify the Order.

It helps the Commission’s analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.
