In the Matter of

NORM THOMPSON OUTFITTERS, INC.
a corporation.

DOCKET NO. C- 4495

DECISION AND ORDER

The Federal Trade Commission (“Commission”) having initiated an investigation of certain acts and practices of Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., a corporation, hereinafter sometimes referred to as “Respondent,” and Respondent having been furnished with a copy of a draft of complaint which the Western Region-San Francisco proposed to present to the Commission for its consideration and which, if issued by the Commission, would charge Respondent with violations of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45 and 52; and

Respondent, its attorneys, and counsel for the Commission having thereafter executed an Agreement Containing a Consent Order (“Consent Agreement”), containing an admission by Respondent of all the jurisdictional facts set forth in the aforesaid draft of Complaint, a statement that the signing of said Consent Agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by Respondent that the law has been violated as alleged in such Complaint, or that the facts as alleged in such Complaint, other than jurisdictional facts, are true, and waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission’s Rule; and

The Commission having thereafter considered the matter and having determined that it had reason to believe that Respondent has violated the said Act, and that a Complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect, and having thereupon accepted the executed Consent Agreement and placed such Consent Agreement on the public record for a period of thirty (30) days, now in further conformity with the procedure prescribed in Commission Rule 2.34, 16 C.F.R. § 2.34, the Commission hereby issues its Complaint, makes the following jurisdictional findings and enters the following Decision and Order:

1. Respondent Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., is an Oregon corporation with its principal office or place of business at 3188 NW Aloclek Drive, Hillsboro, Oregon 97124
2. The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the proceeding and of the Respondent, and the proceeding is in the public interest.

ORDER

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this order, the following definitions shall apply:

1. Unless otherwise specified, “Respondent” shall mean Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, agents, representatives, and employees.
2. “Adequate and well-controlled human clinical study” means a human clinical study that is randomized, double-blind, placebo controlled, and conducted by persons qualified by training and experience to conduct such study.
3. “Commerce” shall mean as defined in Section 4 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.
4. “Covered Product” means any garment containing a drug or cosmetic.
5. “Drug” and “cosmetic” mean as defined in Section 15 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 55.
6. “Reliably Reported,” for a human clinical test or study (“test”), means a report of the test has been published in a peer-reviewed journal, and such published report provides sufficient information about the test for experts in the relevant field to assess the reliability of the results.

I.

IT IS ORDERED that Respondent, directly or through any corporation, partnership, subsidiary, division, trade name, or other device, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any Covered Product, in or affecting commerce, shall not make any representation, in any manner, expressly or by implication, including through the use of a product name, endorsement, depiction, or illustration, that use of such product causes substantial weight or fat loss or a substantial reduction in body size.

II.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent, directly or through any corporation, partnership, subsidiary, division, trade name, or other device, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any Covered Product or any drug or cosmetic, in or affecting commerce, shall not make any representation, other than representations covered under Part I of this order, in any manner, expressly or by implication, including through the use of a product name, endorsement, depiction, or illustration, that use of such product causes weight or fat loss or a reduction in body size, unless the representation is non-misleading, and, at the time it is made, Respondent possesses and relies upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that substantiates that the representation is true. For purposes of this Part, competent and reliable scientific evidence shall consist of at least two adequate and well-controlled human clinical studies of the Covered Product, conducted by different researchers, independently of each other, that conform to acceptable designs and protocols and whose results, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable scientific evidence, are sufficient to substantiate that the representation is true.

III.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent, directly or through any corporation, partnership, subsidiary, division, trade name, or other device, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any Covered Product or any drug or cosmetic, in or affecting commerce, shall not make any representation, other than representations covered under Parts I and II of this order, in any manner, expressly or by implication, including through the use of a product name, endorsement, depiction, or illustration, that use of such product reduces or eliminates cellulite, unless the representation is non-misleading, and, at the time of making such representation, Respondent possesses and relies upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that is sufficient in quality and quantity based on standards generally accepted in the relevant scientific fields, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable scientific evidence, to substantiate that the representation is true. For purposes of this Part, competent and reliable scientific evidence means tests, analyses, research, or studies (1) that have been conducted and evaluated in an objective manner by qualified persons; (2) that are generally accepted in the profession to yield accurate and reliable results; and (3) as to which, when they are human clinical tests or studies, all underlying or supporting data and documents generally accepted by experts in the field as relevant to an assessment of such testing as set forth in Part VIII of this Order are available for inspection and production to the Commission.

IV.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent, directly or through any corporation, partnership, subsidiary, division, trade name, or other device, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any product in or affecting commerce, shall not misrepresent, or assist others in misrepresenting, in any manner, expressly or by implication, including through the use of any product name or endorsement:

- A. The existence, contents, validity, results, conclusions, or interpretations of any test, study, or research; or
- B. That the benefits of the product are scientifically proven.

V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that

- A. Nothing in this order shall prohibit Respondent from making any representation for any product that is specifically permitted in labeling for such product by regulations promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration pursuant to the Nutrition Labeling and Education Act of 1990 or permitted under Sections 303-304 of the Food and Drug Administration Modernization Act of 1997; and
- B. Nothing in this order shall prohibit Respondent from making any representation for any product that is permitted in the labeling for such product under any tentative final or final monograph promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration, or under any new drug application approved by the Food and Drug Administration.

VI.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall, within thirty (30) days after the date of entry of this order, provide to the Commission a searchable electronic file containing the name and contact information of all consumers who purchased any Covered Product from Respondent from March 20, 2011, through the date of entry of this order. Such file (1) shall include each consumer's name and address, the product(s) purchased, the total amount of moneys paid less any amount credited for returns or refunds, the date(s) of purchase, and, if available, the consumer's email address; (2) shall be updated through the National Change of Address database; and (3) shall be accompanied by a sworn affidavit attesting to its accuracy.

VII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall create a fund in the amount of two hundred thirty thousand dollars ($230,000) to be used for the purpose of providing redress to those consumers who purchased any Covered Product from Respondent from March 20, 2011, through the date of entry of this order.

- A. Within 45 days after the date of service of this order, Respondent shall send a notice, in form substantially identical to Attachment A to this order, to all persons whom it identified pursuant to Part VI of this order. Such notice shall be provided by email to all persons for whom Respondent has an email address and by United States Mail to all persons for whom Respondent does not have an email address. Said notice shall contain no information other than that set forth in Attachment A, nor shall any other material be transmitted therewith.
- B. Thirty (30) days after the emailing or mailing of the notice described in Part VII. A., Respondent shall credit to the credit card of record for each consumer who purchased a Covered Product from Respondent during the relevant time period an amount equal to such consumer's pro rata share of the redress fund.

- C. No part of the costs associated with the administration of this redress program shall be paid out of the fund established pursuant to this Section. Respondent shall bear all costs associated with the above-described redress program.
- D. Within sixty (60) days after the emailing or mailing of the notice described in Part VII. A., Respondent shall provide a report in writing to the Federal Trade Commission setting forth the name and address of each consumer who received a credit and the amount of such credit. Respondent shall remit to the Federal Trade Commission any funds remaining after the redress to consumers is completed. The Commission may apply any such funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Respondent's practices alleged in the complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited in the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Respondent shall be notified as to how the funds are distributed, but shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Part. No portion of any payment under this Part shall be deemed a payment of any fine, penalty, or punitive assessment.
- E. Respondent agrees that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Respondent further stipulates and agrees that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to, and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for purposes of, Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A). For all other purposes and with respect to all other parties, Respondent's stipulation in this section shall have no effect. It is specifically agreed and acknowledged that this section is not intended to be, nor shall it be, construed as an admission of liability by Respondent with respect to the allegations set forth in the Complaint with respect to any claims or demands by any third parties.
- F. Proceedings instituted under this Part are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this order.

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, with regard to any human clinical test or study ("test") upon which Respondent relies to substantiate any claim covered by this Order, Respondent shall secure and preserve all underlying or supporting data and documents generally accepted by experts in the field as relevant to an assessment of the test, including, but not necessarily limited to:

- A. All protocols and protocol amendments, reports, articles, write-ups, or other accounts of the results of the test, and drafts of such documents reviewed by the test sponsor or any other person not employed by the research entity;
- B. All documents referring or relating to recruitment; randomization; instructions, including oral instructions, to participants; and participant compliance;
- C. Documents sufficient to identify all test participants, including any participants who did not complete the test, and all communications with any participants relating to the test; all raw data collected from participants enrolled in the test, including any participants who did not complete the test; source documents for such data; any data dictionaries; and any case report forms;
- D. All documents referring or relating to any statistical analysis of any test data, including, but not limited to, any pretest analysis, intent-to-treat analysis, or between-group analysis performed on any test data; and
- E. All documents referring or relating to the sponsorship of the test, including all contracts and communications between any sponsor and the test's researchers.

Provided, however, the preceding preservation requirement shall not apply to a Reliably Reported test, unless the test was conducted, controlled, or sponsored, in whole or in part by (1) any Respondent; (2) any other person or entity in active concert or participation with any Respondent; (3) any person or entity affiliated with or acting on behalf of any Respondent; (4) any supplier of any ingredient contained in the product at issue to any of the foregoing or to the product's manufacturer; or (5) the supplier or manufacturer of such product.

For any test conducted, controlled, or sponsored, in whole or in part, by Respondent, Respondent must establish and maintain reasonable procedures to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of any personal information collected from or about participants. These procedures shall be documented in writing and shall contain administrative, technical, and physical safeguards appropriate to Respondent's size and complexity, the nature and scope of Respondent's activities, and the sensitivity of the personal information collected from or about the participants.

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., and its successors and assigns shall, for five (5) years after the last date of dissemination of any representation covered by this order, maintain and, upon reasonable notice and request, make available to the Federal Trade Commission for inspection and copying:

- A. All advertisements and promotional materials containing the representation;
- B. All materials that were relied upon in disseminating the representation; and

- C. All tests, reports, studies, surveys, demonstrations, or other evidence in its possession or control that contradict, qualify, or call into question the representation, or the basis relied upon for the representation, including complaints and other communications with consumers or with governmental or consumer protection organizations.

X.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., and its successors and assigns shall deliver a copy of this order to all current and future principals, officers, directors, and managers, and to all current and future employees, agents and representatives having primary responsibilities with respect to the subject matter of this order, and shall secure from each such person a signed and dated statement acknowledging receipt of the order. Respondent and its successors and assigns shall deliver this order to current personnel within thirty (30) days after the date of service of this order, and to future personnel within thirty (30) days after the person assumes such position or responsibilities. Respondent shall maintain and upon request make available to the Federal Trade Commission for inspection and copying all acknowledgements of receipt of this order obtained pursuant to this Part.

XI.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., and its successors and assigns shall notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any change in the corporation that may affect compliance obligations arising under this order, including but not limited to a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this order; the proposed filing of a bankruptcy petition; or a change in the corporate name or address. Provided, however, that, with respect to any proposed change in the corporation about which Respondent learns less than thirty (30) days prior to the date such action is to take place, Respondent shall notify the Commission as soon as is practicable after obtaining such knowledge. Unless otherwise directed by a representative of the Commission, all notices required by this Part shall be emailed to Debrief@ftc.gov or sent by overnight courier (not the U.S. Postal Service) to the Associate Director of Enforcement, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580. The subject line must begin: "In the Matter of Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., FTC File Number 132-3094."

XII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Norm Thompson Outfitters, Inc., and its successors and assigns, within sixty (60) days after the date of service of this order, shall file with the Commission a true and accurate report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form of its own compliance with this order. Within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice from a representative of the Commission, it shall submit additional true and accurate written reports.

XIII.

This order will terminate on November 6, 2034, or twenty (20) years from the most recent date that the United States or the Federal Trade Commission files a complaint (with or without an accompanying consent decree) in federal court alleging any violation of the order, whichever comes later; provided, however, that the filing of such a complaint will not affect the duration of:

- A. Any Part in this order that terminates in less than twenty (20) years;
- B. This order's application to any Respondent that is not named as a defendant in such complaint; and
- C. This order if such complaint is filed after the order has terminated pursuant to this Part.

Provided, further, that if such complaint is dismissed or a federal court rules that the Respondent did not violate any provision of the order, and the dismissal or ruling is either not appealed or upheld on appeal, then the order will terminate according to this Part as though the complaint had never been filed, except that the order will not terminate between the date such complaint is filed and the later of the deadline for appealing such dismissal or ruling and the date such dismissal or ruling is upheld on appeal.

By the Commission.

ATTACHMENT A – EMAIL OR MAIL NOTICE TO CONSUMERS

Dear Norm Thompson customer:

Our records show that you purchased a Lytess slimming garment from Norm Thompson on or after March 20, 2011.

When we sold you the Lytess garment, we advertised, based on information we received from the manufacturer, that wearing the garments as instructed would reduce the size of your hips by up to 2.1 inches and your thighs by up to one inch and would eliminate or reduce cellulite and that scientific tests proved those results.

The Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) has charged that we did not have adequate substantiation for these claims. While Norm Thompson neither admits nor denies liability in connection with this matter, we have reached a settlement with the FTC that provides a partial refund to anyone who purchased these garments.

We will be crediting your refund to the credit card that we have on file based on your most recent purchase from Norm Thompson. That credit card ends in XXXX. If that credit card is still active, you do not need to do anything. You will be receiving your refund within XX days.

If that credit card is no longer active, please contact us at XXX-XXX-XXXX within 10 days and provide us with a credit card to which the refund can be credited.

You can verify that this notice is legitimate by going to the FTC’s website at www.ftc.gov or by calling the FTC at XXX-XXX-XXXX.
