Miano, and Dana M. Miano with violating Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45, and the FTC’s Telemarketing Sales Rule (“TSR”), 16 C.F.R. Part 310.

Plaintiff FTC and Defendants have all agreed to the entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order for Permanent Injunction (“Order”) by this Court to resolve all matters of dispute between them in this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, Plaintiff FTC and Defendants, through their respective counsel, having filed a joint motion requesting the Court to enter this Order,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I. FINDINGS

A. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties.

B. Venue is proper as to all parties in the Southern District of Florida.

C. This is an action by the FTC instituted under Sections 13(b) and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 6101-6108, and the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310. Pursuant to these Sections of the FTC Act and the Telemarketing Act, the Commission has the authority to seek the relief contained herein.

D. Defendants’ activities are or were in or affecting commerce, as defined in the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

E. Defendants are Telemarketers and/or sellers for the purposes of the TSR.

F. The FTC’s Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against Defendants under Sections 5(a)(1), 13(b), and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a)(1), 53(b), and 57b; Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6105(b); and the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310.

G. Defendants have waived any and all rights that may arise under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, amended by Pub. L. 104-121, 110 Stat. 847, 863-64 (1996), pertaining to any claim by the FTC arising out of this case.

H. The FTC and Defendants shall each bear their own costs and attorneys' fees incurred in this action.

I. This Order is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law.

J. Plaintiff FTC and Defendants waive all rights to seek appellate review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. Defendants further waive and release any claim they may have against the FTC, its employees, agents, and representatives arising out of this action and under the terms of this Order.

K. Defendants all waive their share of any and all claims to the Assets of A+ Financial Center, LLC, also doing business as Accelerated Financial Centers, LLC, and Accelerated Accounting Services LLC, including any Assets currently in possession of the Receiver appointed by the Court in this matter, Frank Scruggs, Esq., and further stipulate that their share of any of these Assets are to be transferred to the FTC to be used for equitable relief, as described in Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief).

L. Defendants have entered into this Order freely and without coercion. Defendants further acknowledge that they have read the provisions of this Order and are prepared to abide by them.

M. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

N. The parties stipulate and agree to the entry of this Order, without trial or final adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in dispute arising from the conduct alleged in the Complaint to the date of entry of this Order. This settlement does not resolve any matters not alleged in the Complaint. Defendants neither admit nor deny any of the allegations set forth in the Complaint, except as specifically stated in this Order. Only for purposes of this action, Defendants admit the facts necessary to establish jurisdiction.

O. There is no just reason for delaying entry of this Order. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54, this Order directs the entry of final judgment as to all of the claims the FTC alleged in the Complaint against Defendants.

Miano, which amount shall be paid within five (5) days after entry of this Order by the Receiver to Defendants from the funds in the Receivership estate via certified check payable to the trust account of Dean Mead for the benefit of Individual Defendants.
- C. Time is of the essence for the obligations set forth in Subparagraph A above. In the event of any default by Defendants on any obligation imposed under this Section: (1) the Judgment imposed herein will not be suspended as to Defendants, and the full amount of that judgment, nine million, two hundred thirty-eight thousand, one hundred fifty-five dollars and zero cents ($9,238,155.00), shall immediately become due and payable, plus interest from the date of entry of this Order, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, less any amounts already paid; and (2) the FTC shall be entitled to immediately exercise any and all rights and remedies against Defendants and their Assets to collect the full amount of the judgment and interest thereon, less any amounts already paid.
- D. The Receiver shall, as soon as practicable upon receipt of the Assets and transfer of titles pursuant to Subsection A, commence their liquidation using a commercially reasonable procedure, and Defendants shall have no right to challenge said liquidation. Any transfer fees, taxes, or other payments mandated from the transferor under state law shall be paid from the proceeds of each sale at the time each such Asset is sold. Following liquidation Defendants shall cooperate fully to assist the FTC in identifying consumers who may be entitled to redress pursuant to this Order. In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the FTC may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited in the United States Treasury as disgorgement so long as the Court is provided with an accounting of all funds to be deposited into the United States Treasury prior to deposit. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the FTC's choice of remedies under this Section.

Defendants shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the FTC. This judgment for equitable monetary relief is solely remedial in nature and is not a fine, penalty, punitive assessment, or forfeiture.

- F. Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law. Defendants shall make no claim to or demand for return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise.
- G. Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the FTC to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

Defendants further stipulate and agree that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the FTC pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

XI. RIGHT TO REOPEN

- A. The FTC's agreement to this Order is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and supporting Documents that Defendants submitted to the FTC as described in Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief) of this Order, as well as all subsequent addenda thereto, all of which Defendants assert were truthful, accurate, and complete at the time they were submitted. Defendants and the FTC stipulate that these financial disclosures provide the bases for the Assets listed in Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief) of this Order, and include material information upon which the FTC relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Order.
- B. If, upon motion by the FTC, this Court finds that Defendants have failed to disclose any material Asset or materially misstated the value of any Asset in the financial statements or related Documents described above, or have made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial statements or related Documents described in Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief) of this Order, then this Order shall be reopened and suspension of the judgment shall be lifted for the purpose of requiring payment of monetary relief in the amount of nine million, two hundred thirty-eight thousand, one hundred fifty-five dollars and zero cents ($9,238,155.00), less the sum of any amounts paid to the FTC pursuant to Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief) of this Order.

Provided, however, that in all other respects this Order shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

- C. Upon any reinstatement of the monetary judgment, the Court shall make an express determination that the monetary judgment shall be immediately due and payable as to Defendants. The FTC shall be entitled to interest on the judgment, computed from the day of entry of this Order, at the rate prescribed by 18 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, on any outstanding amounts not paid. The FTC shall be permitted to execute on the judgment immediately after the suspension is lifted and engage in discovery in aid of execution.
- D. Proceedings initiated under this provision would be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including any proceedings that the FTC may initiate to enforce this Order. For purposes of this Section, Defendants waive the right to contest any of the allegations in the Complaint.

XII. LIFTING OF ASSET FREEZE

The freeze on the Assets of Defendant pursuant to Section VIII (Asset Freeze) of the Preliminary Injunction entered by this Court on November 1, 2012 [D.E. 23] shall remain in effect until Defendants have complied with all requirements set forth in Section X above, provided, however, that Defendants, with the express written consent of counsel for the FTC, may transfer funds to the extent necessary to make all payments required by Section X. Once Defendants have fully complied with the requirements of Section X, the freeze against the Assets of the Individual Defendants shall be lifted permanently. The freeze on the Assets of the Corporate Defendants shall remain in effect until such time as the Receiver receives payment of all Court-approved fees and expenses of the Receiver and the Receiver is discharged pursuant to Section XVI of this Order. A Financial Institution shall be entitled to rely upon a letter from the FTC stating that the freeze on Defendants' Assets has been lifted.

XIII. RECEIVER'S DUTIES

Frank Scruggs, Esq., the Receiver appointed by the Preliminary Injunction [D.E. 23], is hereby appointed Receiver for Corporate Defendants for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to wind down the businesses of Corporate Defendants, liquidate their Assets, and pay any net Assets to the FTC to satisfy the monetary judgment entered by this Order. - G. Enter into contracts and purchase insurance as advisable or necessary; provided that the Receiver shall not make any payments or disbursements without prior Court approval.
- H. Perform all incidental acts that the Receiver deems to be advisable or necessary, which include retaining, hiring, or dismissing any employees, independent contractors, and agents as the Receiver deems advisable or necessary in the performance of duties and responsibilities under the statutory authority granted by this Order.

The Receiver shall serve copies of monthly account statements on all parties.
- M. Continue to maintain accurate records of all receipts and expenditures that he makes as Receiver.
- N. Continue to cooperate with reasonable requests for information or assistance from any state or federal law enforcement agency.

XIV. COMPENSATION OF RECEIVER

The Receiver and all personnel hired by the Receiver, including counsel to the Receiver and accountants, are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, from the Assets now held by, in the possession or control of, or which may be received by, Corporate Defendants. In determining the amount of reasonable compensation, the Court and parties shall take into account the amount of available Assets and the Court's October 31, 2012 Order [D.E. 20].

XV. RECEIVER'S FINAL REPORT AND DISBURSEMENT OF ASSETS OF THE CORPORATE DEFENDANTS

- A. No later than sixty (60) days from the date of the entry of this Order, the Receiver shall file and serve on the parties a report (the "Final Report") to the Court that details the steps taken to dissolve the Receivership Estate. The Final Report shall include an accounting of the Receivership Estate's finances and total Assets and a description of what other actions, if any, must be taken to wind-down the Receivership. Promptly thereafter, but no later than thirty (30) days after submission of the Final Report, the Receiver shall file an application for payment of compensation and expenses associated with his performance of duties as Receiver under this Order, the Temporary Restraining Order [D.E. 10], and the Preliminary Injunction [D.E. 23] entered in this proceeding, taking into account the amount of available Assets and the Court's October 31, 2012 Order [D.E. 20]. The Receiver shall mail copies of the Final Report to all known creditors of Corporate Defendants with a notice stating that any objections to paying any Assets of Corporate Defendants to satisfy the Receiver's costs and expenses and the monetary judgment set forth in this Order must be submitted to the Court and served by mail upon the Receiver and the parties within thirty (30) days of the mailing of the Final Report. If subsequent actions (such as the completion of tax returns or further actions to recover funds for the Receivership) are appropriate, the Receiver shall file an additional report or reports ("Supplemental Report") describing the subsequent actions and a subsequent application for the payment of fees and expenses related to the subsequent acts. Such subsequent application for payment of fees and expenses shall take into account the amount of available Assets and the Court's October 31, 2012 Order [D.E. 20].

- B. The Court will review the Final Report and any objections to the report and, absent a valid objection, will issue an order directing the Receiver to:
1. pay the reasonable costs and expenses of administering the Receivership, including compensation of the Receiver and the Receiver's personnel authorized by Section XIV (Compensation of Receiver) of this Order or other orders of this Court, and the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Receiver in carrying-out his duties; and
 2. pay all remaining funds to the FTC, as directed in Section X (Equitable Monetary Relief) of this Order as partial satisfaction of the judgment.

XVI. TERMINATION OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

Upon completion by the Receiver of the tasks set forth in this Order and a determination by the Receiver that the Receiver will take no further action, the Receivership over Corporate Defendants shall be dissolved and the Receiver discharged.

XVII. COOPERATION WITH FTC COUNSEL

Defendants shall, in connection with this action or any subsequent investigations related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the FTC's Complaint, cooperate in good faith with the FTC and appear at such places and times as the FTC shall reasonably request, after written notice, for interviews, conferences, pretrial discovery, review of Documents, and for such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the FTC. If requested in writing by the FTC, Defendants shall appear and provide truthful testimony in any trial, deposition, or other proceeding related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the Complaint, without the service of a subpoena.
