3. Defendants shall file their show cause response on or before October 12, 2015.
4. The FTC shall be entitled to file a reply and any supplemental legal authority and/or affidavits on or before October 16, 2015.
5. In the absence of same, the Court will resolve the matter after the hearing on the arguments of counsel and affidavits and pleadings filed in the moving papers and the response.

Case No. 8:15-cv-02231-MSS-TBM

(Proposed)

STIPULATED TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER WITH OTHER EQUITABLE
RELIEF AND ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ISSUE

Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or “Commission”), filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief in this matter, pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b) and moved for a Temporary Restraining Order with Other Equitable Relief and an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on September 24, 2015.

The FTC and Defendants Roca Labs, Inc., Roca Labs Nutraceutical USA, Inc., Don Juravin, and George C. Whiting (collectively, “Defendants”), through counsel, have now stipulated and agreed to entry of this Stipulated Temporary Restraining Order with Other Equitable Relief and an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue. The Court, having considered the Complaint, declarations, exhibits, memorandum of law filed in support of the FTC's motion, and other documents filed in the Court's docket, and now being advised in the premises, finds that:

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over the parties and that venue in this district is proper as Defendants are all located in or have transacted business within the Middle District of Florida.

2. The FTC asserts in its Complaint and other filings that there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged in, and will continue acts and practices that violate Sections 5(a) and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a), 52, in connection with the advertising and sale of weight-loss products, and in connection with the use of contractual provisions that prohibit purchasers from speaking or publishing truthful or non-defamatory negative comments or reviews about Defendants, their products, or their employees.

3. Defendants have not admitted to liability as to the causes of action in the Complaint, and their consent to entry of this Stipulated Temporary Restraining Order shall not be interpreted to constitute an admission that they have engaged in violations of the FTC Act or any law or regulation.

4. No security is required of any agency of the United States for the issuance of a temporary restraining order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

TEMPORARY RESTRAINT ON DECEPTIVE AND UNSUBSTANTIATED CLAIMS

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

- D. Such Covered Product is comparable or superior to bariatric surgery in providing weight-loss benefits;
- E. The efficacy of such Covered Product for achieving weight loss is scientifically proven; or
- F. Such Covered Product is safe and effective for weight loss in children; unless the representation is non-misleading and, at the time of making such representation, Defendants possess and rely upon competent and reliable scientific evidence, that is sufficient in quality and quantity based on standards generally accepted in the scientific fields, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable scientific evidence, to substantiate that the representation is true.

II.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from:

- A. Purporting to bind, including through any notice, warning, threat to enforce or attempt to enforce, any purchaser of a Covered Product—regardless of when purchased—to any contractual provision that purports to prohibit purchasers from speaking or publishing truthful or non-defamatory negative comments or reviews about Defendants, their products, or their employees;
- B. Representing that any purchaser of a Covered Product—regardless of when purchased—owes or has agreed to pay the difference between any purported “discount price,” “subsidized price,” or other price the purchaser was actually charged at the time of purchase of a Covered Product and the purported “full price” for a Covered Product, if the purchaser speaks or publishes negative comments or reviews about Defendants, their products, or their employees; or
- C. Nothing in this subparagraph, however, shall bar Defendants from filing an action or from taking any legally required steps to file or maintain an action, provided that the action: (1) does not violate subparagraphs A or B, above; and (2) is not based upon cooperation with any law enforcement organization, or any statement made or information provided in connection with any law enforcement investigation or filed litigation.

Any person, including any purchaser of a Covered Product, may cooperate with and provide statements to the FTC and any outside party without regard to any existing agreement purporting to limit or prevent purchasers from communicating with any party about Defendants, their products, or their employees.

- B. failing to disclose, or disclose adequately:
 1. any material connection, including but not limited to compensation, incentives, refunds, or discounts, when such a connection exists between any
