

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Theron Ahlman
State of Nebraska

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 13, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Rosanne Angel
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 5, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Mike Awadalla
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order. Your comment raises concerns about the combination of A Place for Mom and Caring.com, which the Commission's Decision and Order addresses.

The Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Peter Bauer
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of December 4, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Shawn Barnes
State of Alabama

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

John Becwar
State of Wisconsin

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 20, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Chuck Bongiovanni
State of Arizona

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Jamie Callahan
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 20, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Anthony Coleman
State of Ohio

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Kirsten Copenhaver
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Everson
State of Ohio

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 11, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Gary Feger
State of Delaware

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 11, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Elizabeth Fischer
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Sandra George
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Jodi Glacer
State of Florida

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 6, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Rick Graffagna
State of Illinois

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 14, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Glen Haddock
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Cindy Hartman
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 17, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Kelila Heller
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Tim Hodge
State of Texas

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Lynn Hunsaker
State of Arizona

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Wendy Jones
State of Ohio

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Jeffrey Kelling
State of Wisconsin

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Sydney Kennedy
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 20, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Wendy Kirby
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order. Your comment raises concerns about the combination of A Place for Mom and Caring.com, which the Commission's Decision and Order addresses.

The Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

David Lanter
State of Kansas

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Bruce Lopes
State of Florida

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Bill Lusk
State of Arizona

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 4, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Carolyn Marengere
State of Michigan

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 4, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Nancy McClure
State of Missouri

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 11, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Mary McRae
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Jane Mundt
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Mike Nichols
State of Tennessee

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 4, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order. Your comment raises concerns about the combination of A Place for Mom and Caring.com, which the Commission's Decision and Order addresses.

The Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Leslie Olesen
State of Illinois

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 21, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Julie Ouellette
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 20, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Charles Picard
State of Maryland

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 12, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Virginia Renker
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 6, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Roberts
State of Arizona

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 16, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Karen Rowell
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Kristi Runa
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Katie Russell
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Sagal
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Patricia Smith
State of Oregon

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 20, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Paula Sotir
State of Maryland

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Mark Sylvester
State of Arizona

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 12, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Sandra Wake
State of Michigan

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 10, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Mark Wolff
State of California

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 9, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

United States of America
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20580

Office of the Secretary

March 1, 2018

Jon Younger
Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Re: In the Matter of Red Ventures Holdco, LP, and Bankrate, Inc.
File No. 171-0196, Docket No. C-4627

Thank you for your comment of November 15, 2017, regarding the proposed consent order accepted by the Federal Trade Commission for public comment in the above-captioned matter. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.9(b)(6)(ii) and has given it serious consideration in connection with its decision concerning whether to accord final approval to the proposed consent order.

Your comment raises concerns regarding the parties' disclosures of the terms and conditions for the services they provide. The Commission has a Congressional mandate to enforce Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, which prohibits deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The Commission has taken your concerns under advisement. With regard to the acquisition of Bankrate, Inc. by Red Ventures, the Commission has determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Decision and Order in final form without modification. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at <http://www.ftc.gov>.

It helps the Commission's analysis to hear from a variety of sources in its work on antitrust and consumer protection issues, and we appreciate your interest in this matter.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary