26 COMMON ENTERPRISE

27 23. Defendants have engaged in the business practices described below through 28 an interrelated network of companies that market, offer for sale, and sell the same

1 products or services, use identical contracts, provide access to online consumer 2 accounts using the same online portal; maintain a shared customer database; share 3 employees; use the same phone room and operate out of the same locations; and 4 commingle funds. As a result, Defendants Alliance, SBS, SBB, FSA, ULC, ULC, 5 Inc., ECS, Elite, and GDP (collectively, “Corporate Defendants”) have operated as 6 a common enterprise while engaging in the unlawful acts and practices described 7 below, and each of them is jointly and severally liable for the acts and practices 8 alleged herein. Defendants Naderi, Gabbaie, Reuveni, Rubeni, Azinkhan, and 9 Ratliff (collectively, “Individual Defendants”) have formulated, directed, 10 controlled, had the authority to control, or participated in the acts and practices of 11 Corporate Defendants that constitute the common enterprise.

12 COMMERCE

13 24. At all times material to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a 14 substantial course of trade in or affecting commerce, as “commerce” is defined in 15 Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

16 DEFENDANTS’ DECEPTIVE STUDENT LOAN DEBT RELIEF 17 OPERATION

18 25. Since at least April 2015, Defendants have targeted alumni of for-profit 19 colleges who are struggling to repay, or are unable to repay, their federal student 20 loans. They deceptively claim that they will qualify or approve consumers for, or 21 enroll consumers in, programs that provide loan forgiveness, permanently reduced 22 monthly payments, reduced or eliminated interest rates, or loan discharge.

23 Defendants often lead consumers to believe that they are affiliated with or work 24 directly with the U.S. Department of Education (“ED”), the government, or the 25 consumer’s loan servicer, or that they will assume the consumer’s student loans.

26 26. In exchange for the promised student loan debt relief, Defendants have 27 charged illegal upfront fees of as much as $1000. Consumers who already cannot 28 afford their loan payments thereby lose substantial sums of money to Defendants,

1 who have generated at least $20 million in revenues from their unlawful scheme.

2 BACKGROUND ON STUDENT LOAN FORGIVENESS AND 3 REPAYMENT PROGRAMS

4 27. Student loan debt is the second largest class of consumer debt; more than 42 5 million Americans collectively owe $1.3 trillion. The student loan market shows 6 elevated levels of distress relative to other types of consumer debt.

7 28. To address this mounting level of distressed debt, the ED and state 8 government agencies administer a limited number of student loan forgiveness and 9 discharge programs. Most consumers, however, are not eligible for these programs 10 because of strict eligibility requirements. For example, one program requires the 11 consumer to demonstrate a total and permanent disability; another applies only to 12 consumers whose school closed while the consumer was still enrolled. A third 13 program, the Borrower Defense to Repayment (“BDR”), may provide a loan 14 discharge if the school, through an act or omission, violated state law directly 15 related to the borrower’s federal student loan or to the educational services for 16 which the loan was provided.

17 29. Other forgiveness programs require working in certain professions for a 18 period of years. Teacher Loan Forgiveness applies to teachers who have worked 19 full-time for five years in a low-income elementary or secondary school or 20 educational service agency. Public Service Loan Forgiveness (“PSLF”) applies to 21 employees of governmental units or non-profit organizations who make timely 22 monthly payments for a period of ten years while employed in the public sector.

23 30. The federal government also offers loan forgiveness through income-driven 24 repayment (“IDR”) programs that enable borrowers to reduce their monthly 25 payments and have portions of their loans forgiven. No loans have been forgiven 26 yet under any of the IDR programs. IDR programs allow eligible borrowers to 27 limit their monthly payments based on a percentage of their discretionary monthly 28 income. To remain in an IDR program, borrowers must recertify their income and 1 family size annually. Obtaining forgiveness through IDR programs requires a 2 minimum of 20 or 25 years of qualifying payments.

3 31. Because a borrower's income is likely to fluctuate over the life of the loan, 4 monthly payments under the IDR programs can vary considerably from year to 5 year. If a borrower's income were to increase over the repayment period, for 6 example, the monthly payment amount could correspondingly increase to the point 7 where those payments would pay off the loan before any amount could be forgiven 8 at the end of the repayment term.

9 32. Consumers can apply for BDR, PSLF, IDR, and other loan repayment and 10 forgiveness or discharge programs through the ED or their student loan servicers at 11 no cost; these programs do not require the assistance of a third-party company or 12 payment of application fees.

13 33. The ED will grant forbearance while processing applications for an 14 alternative repayment plan, and in some cases of hardship. During forbearance, 15 unpaid interest is added to the principal and the loan balance increases.

16 DEFENDANTS' DECEPTIVE MARKETING OF STUDENT LOAN DEBT
17 RELIEF SERVICES

18 34. Defendants have marketed their student loan debt relief services primarily 19 via social media platforms, such as Facebook. The Facebook advertisements lure 20 alumni from for-profit colleges — in particular colleges that have been sued by 21 class action litigants or government agencies, such as University of Phoenix, 22 DeVry University, ITT Tech, and the Art Institutes — to call Defendants to obtain 23 loan forgiveness. A typical Facebook advertisement states:

24 Art Institutes Loan Forgiveness.
25 Call (844) 478-8487 to see if you qualify 26 for loan forgiveness due to the recent 27 litigation against The Art Institutes.
28

1 35. Defendants also cold call consumers sometimes using recorded voice 2 messages stating, for example:

3 Hello, this is Alex with the Student Aid Help Department.

4 Your application just came across my desk and 5 you may be eligible for the Obama Student Loan Forgiveness

6 Program. This program is here for a limited time only

7 and subject to approval. Call me at my direct line now

8 to get more information. 310-589-4450. Have a nice day.

9 36. In telephone calls with consumers, Defendants make multiple 10 misrepresentations regarding their services. For example, Defendants falsely tell 11 consumers they have been qualified for, or approved for reduced monthly 12 payments, often a zero or low monthly payment for the term of the loan, reduced or 13 eliminated interest, loan forgiveness, or discharge. Defendants also falsely tell 14 consumers that they must pay to receive reduced monthly payments, reduced or 15 eliminated interest, loan forgiveness, or discharge. To enhance their credibility 16 and persuade consumers that they are legitimate, Defendants often falsely state or 17 imply that they work with or are affiliated with the ED, the government, or the 18 consumer's loan servicer. In other instances, Defendants claim that they will 19 assume responsibility for consumers' student loans, a claim bolstered when they 20 provided consumers with access to a new online loan account maintained by 21 Defendants. Only the ED can establish qualification for ED programs and third 22 parties cannot take over an ED student loan.

23 37. Defendants promise to enroll consumers in these programs in exchange for 24 an up-front fee that ranges from $400 to $1000. Defendants often allow a 25 consumer to pay the fee in installments over a three-month period, but tell the 26 consumer that they will not secure the promised relief until after the consumer has 27 paid the full amount of the fee. Defendants often create a sense of urgency by 28

1 falsely claiming that the funding provided by the government or lawsuit settlement 2 may not be available if the consumer does not agree to sign up immediately.

3 38. While Defendants are still speaking with the consumer on the phone, they 4 email the consumer several pages of documents to sign, the last two pages of 5 which are the purported agreement for Defendants' services. Defendants demand 6 consumers sign the agreement quickly, in some instances, requiring consumers to 7 sign the documents from their phones. Defendants often mislead consumers 8 regarding the nature of the documents, telling them that the documents simply 9 provided authorization for payment of the fee, authorization to act on behalf of the 10 consumer with the lender, or that the documents simply reflect what was discussed 11 in the sales call.

12 39. The agreement signed by the consumer, however, does not reflect the 13 promises made during the sales call. Fine print at the top of the penultimate page 14 of the agreement purports to limit Defendants' obligation to "provid[ing] 15 preparation services to assist consumers who are applying for federal student loans 16 programs using Department of Education (DOE) forms." Defendants never state 17 or even imply during lengthy telephone sales pitches touting loan forgiveness and 18 permanently reduced monthly payments that Defendants do nothing but fill out 19 forms for ED programs. To the contrary, Defendants gear their entire sales pitch 20 toward convincing often reluctant and financially struggling consumers that if they 21 pay Defendants hundreds of dollars, they will obtain relief from unaffordable 22 monthly loan payments.

23 40. In short, consumers pay Defendants for promised loan forgiveness or 24 permanently reduced monthly payments, but in most instances, receive neither the 25 promised loan forgiveness nor permanently reduced monthly payments. In many 26 instances, consumers are in a worse position after doing business with Defendants 27 than they were before. Consumers are generally unable to obtain a refund from 28

1 Defendants, who use the consumer’s signed agreement as an excuse for denying a 2 refund request.

3 VIOLATIONS OF SECTION 5 OF THE FTC ACT

4 41. Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), prohibits “unfair or 5 deceptive acts and practices in or affecting commerce.”

6 42. Misrepresentations or deceptive omissions of material fact constitute 7 deceptive acts or practices prohibited by Section 5(a) of the FTC Act.

8 COUNT I

9 (Deceptive Student Loan Debt Relief Representations)

10 43. In numerous instances, in connection with the advertising, marketing, 11 promoting, offering for sale, or sale of student loan debt relief services, Defendants 12 have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication that:

13 a. Defendants are part of, affiliated with, or work directly with the 14 government, government loan programs, the Department of Education, or 15 consumers’ loan servicers;

16 b. Consumers who purchase Defendants’ debt relief services generally 17 will have their monthly payments reduced or their loan balances forgiven in 18 whole or in part; and

19 c. Consumers are qualified for, or are approved to receive loan 20 forgiveness or other programs that will permanently lower or eliminate their 21 loan payments or balances.

22 44. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances, in which Defendants have made 23 the representations set forth in Paragraph 43, such representations were false or 24 unsubstantiated at the time the representations were made.

25 45. Therefore, Defendants’ representations as set forth in Paragraph 43
26 constitute deceptive acts or practice in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 27 U.S.C. § 45(a).

1 THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

2 46. Congress directed the FTC to prescribe rules prohibiting abusive and 3 deceptive telemarketing acts or practices pursuant to the Telemarketing Act, 15 4 U.S.C. §§ 6101- 6108. The FTC adopted the original Telemarketing Sales Rule in 5 1995, extensively amended it in 2003, and amended certain provisions thereafter.

6 47. Defendants are “seller[s]” or “telemarketer[s]” engaged in “telemarketing” 7 as those terms are defined in the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2 (dd), (ff), and (gg). A 8 “seller” is any person who, in connection with a telemarketing transaction, 9 provides, offers to provide, or arranges for others to provide goods or services to a 10 customer in exchange for consideration. Id. 310.2(dd). A “telemarketer” is any 11 person who, in connection with telemarketing, initiates or receives telephone calls 12 to or from a customer or donor. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(ff).

13 48. Defendants are sellers or telemarketers of “debt relief” services as defined 14 by TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o). Under the TSR, “debt relief service” means any 15 program or service represented, directly or by implication, to renegotiate, settle, or 16 in any way alter the terms of payment or other terms of the debt between a person 17 and one or more unsecured creditors, including but not limited to, a reduction in 18 the balance, interest rate, or fees owed by a person to an unsecured creditor or debt 19 collector. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o).

20 49. The TSR prohibits any seller or telemarketer from requesting or receiving 21 payment of any fees or consideration for any debt relief service until and unless:

22 a. The seller or telemarketer has renegotiated, settled, reduced, or 23 otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement 24 agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement 25 executed by the customer; and

26 b. The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that 27 settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual 28 agreement between the customer and the creditor; and

1 c. To the extent that debts enrolled in a service are renegotiated, settled, 2 reduced, or otherwise altered individually, the fee or consideration either:

3 i. Bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee for 4 renegotiating, settling, reducing or altering the terms of the entire debt 5 balance as the individual debt amount bears to the entire debt amount.
6 The individual debt amount and the entire debt amount are those owed 7 at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or 8 ii. Is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the 9 renegotiation, settlement, reduction, or alteration. The percentage 10 charged cannot change from one individual debt to another. The 11 amount saved is the difference between the amount owed at the time 12 the debt was enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to 13 satisfy the debt. 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(5)(i).

14 50. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting directly or 15 by implication, the seller's or telemarketer's affiliation with, or endorsement or 16 sponsorship by, any person or government entity. 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(vii).

17 51. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting directly or 18 by implication, any material aspect of any debt relief service, including, but not 19 limited to, the amount of money or the percentage of the debt amount that the 20 consumer may save by using the service. 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(x).

21 52. Pursuant to Section 3(c) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6102(c), and 22 Section 18(d)(3) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57a(d)(3), a violation of the TSR 23 constitutes an unfair or deceptive practice in or affecting commerce, in violation of 24 Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

1                   VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

2                                   COUNT II

3   (Advance Fee for Debt Relief Services)

4 53. In numerous instances in connection with the telemarketing of student loan 5 debt relief services, Defendants have requested or received payment of a fee or 6 consideration for debt relief services before:

7       a. Defendants have renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered 8 the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt 9 management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the 10 customer; and

11       b. The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that 12 settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual 13 agreement between the customer and the creditor.

14 54. Defendants' acts and practices, as described in Paragraph 53, are abusive 15 telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section 310.4(a)(5)(i) of the TSR, 16 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(5)(i).

17                                   COUNT III

18   (Misrepresentation of Affiliation)

19 55. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of student loan 20 debt relief services, Defendants have misrepresented, directly or indirectly, 21 expressly or by implication, that Defendants are affiliated with, or endorsed or 22 sponsored by, the government, government loan programs, the Department of 23 Education, or consumers' loan servicers.

24 56. Defendants' acts and practices, as described in Paragraph 55, are deceptive
25 telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section 310.3(a)(2)(vii) of the TSR, 16 26 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(vii).

1 COUNT IV

2 (Material Debt Relief Misrepresentations)

3 57. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of student loan
4 debt relief services, Defendants have misrepresented, directly or indirectly, 5 expressly or by implication, material aspects of their debt relief services, including, 6 but not limited to that:

7 a. Consumers who purchase Defendants' debt relief services generally 8 will have their monthly payments reduced or their loan balances forgiven in 9 whole or in part; and 10 b. Consumers are qualified for, or are approved to receive loan 11 forgiveness or other programs that will permanently lower or eliminate their 12 loan payments or balances.

13 58. Defendants' acts and practices, as described in Paragraph 57, are deceptive
14 telemarketing acts or practices that violate Section 310.3(a)(2)(x) of the TSR, 16 15 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(x).

16 COUNT V

17 (Disgorgement of Ill-Gotten Gains of Relief Defendants)

18 59. Relief Defendants Direct and Capital have received, directly or indirectly, 19 funds and other assets from Defendants that are traceable to funds obtained from 20 Defendants' customers through the unlawful acts or practices described herein.
21 Relief Defendants Direct and Capital have no legitimate claim to Defendants' 22 customers' funds or other assets and will be unjustly enriched if they are not 23 required to disgorge the assets or the value of benefits received as a result of 24 Defendants' unlawful acts or practices.

25 60. By reason of the foregoing, Relief Defendants Direct and Capital hold funds 26 and assets in constructive trust for the benefit of Defendants' consumers.

1 CONSUMER INJURY

2 61. Consumers have suffered and will continue to suffer substantial injury as a 3 result of Defendants’ violations of the FTC Act and the TSR. In addition, 4 Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of their unlawful acts or 5 practices. Absent injunctive relief by this Court, Defendants are likely to continue 6 to injure consumers, reap unjust enrichment, and harm the public interest.

7 THE COURT’S POWER TO GRANT RELIEF

8 62. Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), empowers this Court to 9 grant injunctive and such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to halt 10 and redress violations of any provision of law enforced by the FTC. The Court, in 11 the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction, may award ancillary relief, including 12 rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and 13 the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, to prevent and remedy any violation of any 14 provision of law enforced by the FTC.

15 63. Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6105(b), authorizes this 16 Court to grant such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to 17 consumers resulting from Defendants’ violations of the TSR, including the 18 rescission or reformation of contracts, and the refund of money.

19 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 64. Wherefore, Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission, pursuant to Section 13(b)
21 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 22 U.S.C. § 6105(b), and the Court’s own equitable powers, requests that the Court:

23 A. Award Plaintiff such preliminary injunctive and ancillary relief as 24 may be necessary to avert the likelihood of consumer injury during the pendency 25 of this action, and to preserve the possibility of effective final relief, including, but 26 not limited to, preliminary injunction, an order freezing Defendants’ assets, 27 appointment of a temporary receiver, immediate access to business premises, and 28 expedited discovery;

1 B. Enter a permanent injunction to prevent future violations of the FTC 2 Act and the TSR;

3 C. Award such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to 4 consumers resulting from Defendants' violations of the FTC Act and the TSR, 5 including, but not limited to, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the 6 refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies; and 7 D. Award Plaintiff the costs of bringing this action, as well as such other 8 and additional relief as the Court may determine to be just and proper.
