Upon such payment and other asset transfers specified in this Section, the remainder of the judgment is suspended, subject to the Subsections below.

misstatement or omission in the financial representations and other documents identified above.

F. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to Stipulating Defendants in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

G. Stipulating Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

H. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Commission, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

I. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

J. Stipulating Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer

Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which Stipulating Defendants previously submitted to the Commission, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

K. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Stipulating Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Stipulating Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

L. This final order maintains and continues the asset freeze established in the stipulated preliminary injunction entered November 15, 2017 (Dkt. 30, Sections III and IV) in full force, with the exceptions set out below. The asset freeze is modified to permit the transfers identified in Section III.B. Additionally, with respect to Stipulating Defendant Lamar Snow, the prohibition against incurring liens or encumbrances on real property (Section III.C. of the Stipulated Preliminary Injunction) shall be modified to allow Snow to use the Snow Real Properties as security in order to borrow money to complete the payment identified in Section III.C. Any and all borrowed funds shall be transferred to the FTC by the lender. Upon completion of the transfers identified in Section III.B. and the payment identified in Section III.C., the asset freeze as to the Stipulating Defendants is dissolved.
