~~9~~ PROPOSED ORDER

Upon application of the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC" or "Commission") for judicial assistance on behalf of the Competition Bureau, Canada ("Competition Bureau") to obtain information from Aegis Mobile LLC, a corporation found in this District, for use in a judicial proceeding in Ontario, Canada, and it appearing that the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1782 have been satisfied,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, pursuant to the authority conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1782 and the Court's inherent authority, that Laureen Kapin, FTC Counsel for International Consumer Protection, and Stephanie Rosenthal, attorney in the FTC's Division of Financial Practices, are hereby appointed as Commissioners of the Court and are hereby directed to take such steps as are necessary to collect the evidence requested by the Competition Bureau as follows:

1. the Commissioners may issue commissioner's subpoenas to be served on persons (natural and artificial) within the jurisdiction of this Court ordering them or their representatives to appear and testify and produce documents;

2. the Commissioners shall provide notice with respect to the collection of this information to those persons identified in the requests as parties to whom notice should be given (and no notice to any other party shall be required);

3. the Commissioners, in collecting the information requested, may be accompanied by persons whose presence or participation is authorized by the Commissioner, including, without limitation, representatives of the Competition Bureau who, as authorized by the Commissioners, may direct questions to any witness;

4. the Commissioners may seek such further orders of this Court as may be necessary to execute this request for information;

5. the Commissioners shall submit the evidence collected to the FTC for transmission to the Competition Bureau.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
