COMPLAINT COUNSEL’S MOTION AND MEMORANDUM FOR THE ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS AD TESTIFICANDUM FOR TRIAL UNDER RULE 3.36

Complaint Counsel respectfully move the Court for an order pursuant to Rule 3.36 for the issuance of the attached subpoenas ad testificandum to the nine employees of various county and city governments whom Complaint Counsel have included in its Final Proposed Witness List and whom Complaint Counsel currently intend to call to testify at trial. The testimony sought from these nine witnesses meets the requirements of Rule 3.36. Respondent has authorized Complaint Counsel to represent that Respondent does not oppose this motion.

Rule 3.36(b) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice requires a party seeking issuance of a subpoena for the appearance at trial of an official or employee of a governmental agency to make a specific showing regarding the requested subpoena. For trial testimony, the noticing party must show that the testimony sought from the employee of the governmental agency is reasonable in scope.¹

The proposed subpoenas ad testificandum meet the requirements of Rule 3.36(b). The testimony sought from each of the nine witnesses will relate to Axon Enterprise’s acquisition of ¹ The other requirements of Rule 3.36, applicable to subpoenas for depositions or for witnesses outside of the United States, are not applicable here because all nine of these trial witnesses reside in the United States.

VieVu from Safariland, including, inter alia, each police departments' needs, experiences, uses, options, supply, and procurement of BWC/DEMS, Requests for Proposals (“RFPs”) issued, bids received in response to RFPs, agreements related to BWC/DEMS, competition in the BWC/DEMS market, and the impact of the acquisition on each department.² The scope of the testimony sought is limited to these and related topics. See In the Matter Union Oil Company, 2004 FTC LEXIS 256, FTC Docket No. 9305 (Order dated Dec. 7, 2004), available at <https://www.ftc.gov/sites/default/files/documents/cases/2004/12/041207aljordrespamosubpadtest.pdf> (trial subpoena ad testificandum granted for employee of California Air Resources Board).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Complaint Counsel respectfully request that the Court issue the attached Subpoenas Ad Testificandum to the nine employees of the county and city governments whom Complaint Counsel has included in its Final Proposed Witness List and whom Complaint Counsel currently intend to call to testify at trial.

INSTRUCTIONS AND NOTICES

The delivery of this subpoena to you by any method prescribed by the Commission's Rules of Practice is legal service and may subject you to a penalty imposed by law for failure to comply. This subpoena does not require approval by OMB under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980.

PETITION TO LIMIT OR QUASH

The Commission's Rules of Practice require that any petition to limit or quash this subpoena be filed within 20 days after service, or, if the return date is less than 20 days after service, prior to the return date. The original and twelve copies of the petition must be filed with the Secretary of the Federal Trade Commission, and one copy should be sent to the Commission Counsel named in Item 8.

YOUR RIGHTS TO REGULATORY ENFORCEMENT FAIRNESS

The FTC has a longstanding commitment to a fair regulatory enforcement environment. If you are a small business (under Small Business Administration standards), you have a right to contact the Small Business Administration's National Ombudsman at 1-888-REGFAIR (1-888-734-3247) or www.sba.gov/ombudsman regarding the fairness of the compliance and enforcement activities of the agency. You should understand, however, that the National Ombudsman cannot change, stop, or delay a federal agency enforcement action.

The FTC strictly forbids retaliatory acts by its employees, and you will not be penalized for expressing a concern about these activities.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

Use the enclosed travel voucher to claim compensation to which you are entitled as a witness for the Commission. The completed travel voucher and this subpoena should be presented to Commission Counsel for payment. If you are permanently or temporarily living somewhere other than the address on this subpoena and it would require excessive travel for you to appear, you must get prior approval from Commission Counsel. Witness travelers can contact the FTC travel office for guidance at (202) 326-3299 or travel@ftc.gov. PLEASE NOTE: Reimbursement for necessary transportation, lodging, and per diem expenses cannot exceed the maximum allowed for such expenses by an employee of the federal government.

INSTRUCTIONS AND NOTICES

The delivery of this subpoena to you by any method prescribed by the Commission's Rules of Practice is legal service and may subject you to a penalty imposed by law for failure to comply. This subpoena does not require approval by OMB under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980.

PETITION TO LIMIT OR QUASH

The Commission's Rules of Practice require that any petition to limit or quash this subpoena be filed within 20 days after service, or, if the return date is less than 20 days after service, prior to the return date. The original and twelve copies of the petition must be filed with the Secretary of the Federal Trade Commission, and one copy should be sent to the Commission Counsel named in Item 8.

YOUR RIGHTS TO REGULATORY ENFORCEMENT FAIRNESS

The FTC has a longstanding commitment to a fair regulatory enforcement environment. If you are a small business (under Small Business Administration standards), you have a right to contact the Small Business Administration's National Ombudsman at 1-888-REGFAIR (1-888-734-3247) or www.sba.gov/ombudsman regarding the fairness of the compliance and enforcement activities of the agency. You should understand, however, that the National Ombudsman cannot change, stop, or delay a federal agency enforcement action.

The FTC strictly forbids retaliatory acts by its employees, and you will not be penalized for expressing a concern about these activities.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

Use the enclosed travel voucher to claim compensation to which you are entitled as a witness for the Commission. The completed travel voucher and this subpoena should be presented to Commission Counsel for payment. If you are permanently or temporarily living somewhere other than the address on this subpoena and it would require excessive travel for you to appear, you must get prior approval from Commission Counsel. Witness travelers can contact the FTC travel office for guidance at (202) 326-3299 or travel@ftc.gov. PLEASE NOTE: Reimbursement for necessary transportation, lodging, and per diem expenses cannot exceed the maximum allowed for such expenses by an employee of the federal government.

A copy of the Commission's Rules of Practice is available online at <http://bit.ly/FTCsRulesofPractice>. Paper copies are available upon request.
