ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MOVE TO LIMIT OR QUASH SUBPOENAS *DUCES TECUM

On October 22, 2020, non-party Turning Point Brands, Inc. (“Turning Point”), Respondent JUUL Labs, Inc. (“JLI”), and Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) Complaint Counsel jointly filed a Motion for Extension of Time to Move to Limit or Quash two Subpoenas Duces Tecum (“Motion”) served on Turning Point: one served by JLI on September 16, 2020, and one served by Complaint Counsel on September 24, 2020.

Under FTC Rule of Practice 3.34(c), any motion to limit or quash a subpoena must be filed within 10 days of receipt of the subpoena. 16 C.F.R. § 3.34(c). By Order dated September 28, 2020, Turning Point was granted an extension to October 23, 2020. Turning Point, JLI, and Complaint Counsel jointly state that they seek a further extension until November 6, 2020, in order to continue their negotiations regarding the scope and asserted burden of the subpoenas. Turning Point, JLI, and Complaint Counsel argue that an additional extension is necessary because the parties have made substantial progress in their negotiations so far and believe that further negotiations may obviate the need for motion practice regarding the subpoenas.

FTC Rule 4.3(b) authorizes the Administrative Law Judge, except in circumstances not here presented, to extend any time limit prescribed by the rules “[f]or good cause shown.” 16 C.F.R. § 4.3(b). Based on the representations in the Motion, Turning Point, JLI, and Complaint Counsel have demonstrated good cause for the requested extension. Accordingly, the Motion is GRANTED and it is hereby ORDERED that Turning Point's deadline for filing any motion to limit or quash the subpoenas pursuant to Rule 3.34(c) is extended to November 6, 2020.
