Such testing must be: (1) randomized, double-blind, and placebo-controlled; and (2) conducted by researchers qualified by training and experience to conduct such testing. In addition, all underlying or supporting data and documents generally accepted by experts in the field as relevant to an assessment of such testing as described in the Section entitled Preservation of Records Relating to Competent and Reliable Human Clinical Tests or Studies must be available for inspection and production to Plaintiffs. Persons covered by this Section have the burden of proving that a product satisfies the definition of Essentially Equivalent Product.

III.

PROHIBITED REPRESENTATIONS: OTHER HEALTH-RELATED CLAIMS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, and employees, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any Covered Product, are permanently restrained and enjoined from making, or assisting others in making, expressly or by implication, including through the use of a product name, endorsement, depiction, or illustration, any representation about the health benefits, safety, performance, or efficacy of any Covered Product, other than representations covered under the Sections of this Order entitled Banned Weight-Loss Claims and Prohibited Representations: Other Weight-Loss Claims, Joint-Related Disease Claims, and Alzheimer's Disease, Memory, and Cognitive Performance Claims, unless the representation is non-misleading, and, at the time of making such representation, they possess and rely upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that is sufficient in quality and quantity based on standards generally accepted by experts in the relevant disease, condition, or function to which the representation relates, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable scientific evidence, to substantiate that the representation is true.

For purposes of this Section, competent and reliable scientific evidence means tests, analyses, research, or studies (1) that have been conducted and evaluated in an objective manner by experts in the relevant disease, condition, or function to which the representation relates; (2) that are generally accepted by such experts to yield accurate and reliable results; and (3) that are randomized, double-blind, and placebo-controlled human clinical testing of the Covered

Product, or of an Essentially Equivalent Product, when such experts would generally require such human clinical testing to substantiate that the representation is true. In addition, when such tests or studies are human clinical tests or studies, all underlying or supporting data and documents generally accepted by experts in the field as relevant to an assessment of such testing as set forth in the Section entitled Preservation of Records Relating to Competent and Reliable Human Clinical Tests or Studies must be available for inspection and production to Plaintiffs. Persons covered by this Section have the burden of proving that a product satisfies the definition of Essentially Equivalent Product.

IV.

V.

- A. For any drug, making a representation that is approved in labeling for such drug under any tentative final or final monograph promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration, or under any new drug application approved by the Food and Drug Administration; and

- B. For any product, making a representation that is specifically authorized for use in labeling for such product by regulations promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration pursuant to the Nutrition Labeling and Education Act of 1990 or permitted under Sections 303-304 of the Food and Drug Administration Modernization Act of 1997.

VI.

PRESERVATION OF RECORDS RELATING TO COMPETENT AND RELIABLE HUMAN CLINICAL TESTS OR STUDIES

For purposes of this Section, "reliably reported test" means a report of the test has been published in a peer-reviewed journal, and such published report provides sufficient information about the test for experts in the relevant field to assess the reliability of the results.

For any test conducted, controlled, or sponsored, in whole or in part, by Defendants, Defendants must establish and maintain reasonable procedures to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of any personal information collected from or about participants. These procedures must be documented in writing and must contain administrative, technical, and physical safeguards appropriate to Corporate Defendant's size and complexity, the nature and scope of Defendants' activities, and the sensitivity of the personal information collected from or about the participants.

A. Failing to Clearly and Conspicuously disclose, or assisting others in failing to Clearly and Conspicuously disclose, before consumers are asked to reveal billing information such as account number or to consent to any purchase in connection with any claim that a good or service is offered on a “free,” “risk-free,” “trial,” “no obligation,” “reduced,” discounted basis, or words of similar import, the following material terms and conditions of any offer:

7. The mechanism to stop any recurring Charges.

In addition, for any transaction involving a sale of a good or service to a consumer through a Negative Option Feature, within 10 days after the date of the sale, Defendants must send the consumer written confirmation of the transaction, either by email or first class mail, according to the consumer's preference, which is identified as a written confirmation in the email subject line or on the outside of the envelope. Such written confirmation must include Clear and Conspicuous disclosure of all the information required by this Subsection IX.B(1)-(7) above, and must specify the procedures by which consumers can cancel or obtain a refund if a refund is offered.

EXPRESS INFORMED CONSENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any good or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from using billing information to obtain payment from a consumer, unless, prior to using such billing information to obtain payment, they obtain the express informed consent of the consumer.

A. For all written offers with a Negative Option Feature (including over the Internet or other web-based applications or services), a consumer's express informed consent must be

XIII.

MONETARY JUDGMENT AND CONSUMER REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Judgment in the amount of $3,700,514 is hereby entered in favor of the Commission against Defendants, jointly and severally, as equitable monetary relief.
- B. Defendants are ordered to pay to the Commission $800,000. Defendants stipulate that they have posted $450,000 into the escrow account of their undersigned counsel for no purpose other than payment to the Commission. Defendants will remit the balance of $350,000 to the escrow account of their undersigned counsel prior to submission of this Order to the Court for approval. The escrowed funds shall be paid to the Commission within 7 days of the Court's entry of this Order and shall be transferred in accordance with the wire transfer instructions previously provided to counsel by a representative of the Commission.
- C. Upon satisfaction of the obligations described in Subsection B above, the remainder of the judgment as to the Defendants shall be suspended subject to Subsections E and F below.
- D. In the event of default of any obligation to make payments under this Order, including, but not limited to, failure to pay $800,000 to the Commission pursuant to Section B, above, interest shall accrue as computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a) from the date of default to the date of payment. In the event such default continues for 10 calendar days beyond the date any payments are due, the entire judgment amount of $3,700,514 shall immediately become due and payable.
- E. Plaintiffs' agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and related documents (collectively, “financial representations”) submitted to Plaintiffs, namely the following:

1. the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Kramer Duhon signed on December 19, 2016, including the attachments (HRL003490-3504; HRL004034);
2. the Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant Health Research Laboratories, LLC, signed by Kramer Duhon, President, on December 18, 2016, including the attachments (HRL003474-3489); and
3. the additional documentation and information submitted by letter from Defendants’ counsel Andrew Lustigman to Commission counsel Elizabeth Nach, dated December 22, 2016; January 13, 2017; February 8, 2017; February 17, 2017; February 28, 2017; March 31, 2017; and April 20, 2017; including all attachments thereto (bates-stamped HRL003227-4894 and 117 un-stamped JP Morgan investment account statements).

F. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Defendant if, upon motion by either of Plaintiffs, the Court finds that such Defendant failed to disclose any material asset, materially misstated the value of any asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial representations identified in Subsection E above.

G. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to the Defendant or Defendants causing the suspension to be lifted in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

H. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the money shall be divided with the State of Maine. Any money not transferred to the State of Maine or not used by the Commission for equitable relief, including consumer information remedies, is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

I. All money paid to the State of Maine pursuant to this Order must be deposited into the Attorney General's other special revenue account and used for consumer education, consumer protection, antitrust enforcement, or for any lawful purpose at the sole discretion of the Attorney General.

J. Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

K. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of either of Plaintiffs, in a proceeding to enforce their rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

L. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by either of Plaintiffs pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

M. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which Defendants previously submitted to Plaintiffs, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.
