UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Civil Action No. 1:18-cv-02858 (TKJ)

JAMES L. DOLAN,

Defendant.

MOTION AND MEMORANDUM OF THE UNITED STATES IN SUPPORT OF ENTRY OF FINAL JUDGMENT

Pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)-(h) ("APPA"), plaintiff United States of America ("United States") moves for entry of the proposed Final Judgment filed on December 6, 2018 (Document 1-4). The proposed Final Judgment may be entered at this time without further proceedings if the Court determines that entry is in the public interest. 15 U.S.C. § 16(e). The Competitive Impact Statement ("CIS") filed by the United States on December 6, 2018 (Document 1-5), explains why entry of the proposed Final Judgment is in the public interest. The United States is filing simultaneously with this Motion and Memorandum a Certificate of Compliance (attached as Exhibit 1) setting forth the steps taken by the parties to comply with the applicable provisions of the APPA and certifying that the sixty-day statutory public comment period has expired, and no public comments have been received.

I. BACKGROUND

On December 6, 2018, the United States filed a Complaint against Defendant James L. Dolan ("Dolan") related to the Defendant's acquisition of voting securities of the Madison Square Garden Company ("MSG").

The Complaint alleges that the Defendant violated Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, commonly known as the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the "HSR Act"). The HSR Act requires certain acquiring and acquired parties to file preacquisition Notification and Report Forms with the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission (collectively, the "federal antitrust agencies" or "agencies") and to observe a statutorily mandated waiting period before consummating their acquisition. A fundamental purpose of the notification and waiting period is to allow the agencies an opportunity to conduct an antitrust review of proposed transactions that meet the HSR Act's jurisdictional thresholds before they are consummated.

Compliance with the HSR Act is critical to the federal antitrust agencies' ability to investigate large acquisitions before they are consummated, prevent acquisitions determined to be unlawful under Section 7 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §18, and design effective divestiture relief when appropriate. Before Congress enacted the HSR Act, the federal antitrust agencies often were forced to investigate anticompetitive acquisitions that had already been consummated without public notice. In those situations, the agencies' only recourse was to sue to unwind the parties' merger. The combined entity usually had the incentive to delay litigation, and years often passed before the case was adjudicated and relief was pursued or obtained. During this extended time, consumers were harmed by the reduction in competition between the merging parties and, even after the court's adjudication, effective relief was often impossible to achieve. Congress enacted the HSR Act to address these problems and to strengthen and improve antitrust enforcement by giving the agencies an opportunity to investigate certain large acquisitions before they are consummated.

As alleged in the Complaint, Defendant is the Executive Chairman and a Director of MSG and, as a result of holding these positions, frequently receives restricted stock units ("RSUs") as a part of his compensation package. On August 16, 2016, due to vesting RSUs, Dolan filed an HSR Notification for an acquisition of MSG voting securities that would result in holdings exceeding the $50 million threshold as adjusted. Early termination of the HSR Act's waiting period was granted on this filing on September 6, 2016. Dolan was permitted under the HSR Act to acquire additional voting securities of MSG without making another HSR Act filing so long as he did not exceed the $100 million threshold, as adjusted (as of February 27, 2017, the adjusted $100 million threshold was $161.5 million). On September 11, 2017, Dolan acquired 591 shares of MSG dues to vesting RSUs. As a result of this acquisition, Dolan held voting securities of MSG valued in excess of the $161.5 million threshold then in effect. Defendant thus acquired these shares without complying with the pre-merger notification and waiting period requirements of the HSR Act. Defendant's failure to comply undermined the statutory scheme and the purpose of the HSR Act by precluding the agencies' timely review of the Defendant's acquisitions. The Complaint seeks an adjudication that the Defendant's acquisitions of voting securities of MSG violated the HSR Act, and asks the Court to award an appropriate civil penalty.

At the same time the Complaint was filed, the United States also filed a Stipulation and proposed Final Judgment. The terms of the proposed Final Judgment are designed to deter Defendant's future HSR Act violations by imposing a civil penalty of $608,910.

Entry of the proposed Final Judgment would terminate this action, except that the Court would retain jurisdiction to construe, modify, or enforce the provisions of the Final Judgment and to punish violations thereof until such time as Defendant has paid the civil penalty in full and the Final Judgment thereby terminates.

II. COMPLIANCE WITH THE APPA

The APPA requires a sixty-day period for the submission of written comments relating to the proposed Final Judgment, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b). In compliance with the APPA, the United States filed the proposed Final Judgment and CIS with the Court on December 6, 2018, and published the proposed Final Judgment and CIS in the Federal Register on December 14, 2018, see 83 Fed. Reg. 64359-64 (2018). Summaries of the terms of the proposed Final Judgment and CIS, together with directions for the submission of written comments relating to the proposed Final Judgment, were published in The Washington Post for seven days during the period from December 12, 2018, through December 18, 2018. The sixty-day period for public comments ended on February 19, 2019. The United States received no written comments relating to the proposed Final Judgment.

The Certificate of Compliance filed with this Motion and Memorandum states that all the requirements of the APPA have been satisfied. It is now appropriate for the Court to make the public interest determination required by 15 U.S.C. § 16(e) and to enter the Proposed Final Judgment.

III. STANDARD OF JUDICIAL REVIEW

Before entering the proposed Final Judgment, the APPA requires the Court to determine whether the proposed Final Judgment "is in the public interest." 15 U.S.C. § 16(e)(1). In making that determination, the Court shall consider:

(A) the competitive impact of such judgment, including termination of alleged violations, provisions for enforcement and modification, duration of relief sought, anticipated effects of alternative remedies actually considered, whether its terms are ambiguous, and any other competitive considerations bearing upon the adequacy of such judgment that the court deems necessary to a determination of whether the consent judgment is in the public interest; and

(B) the impact of entry of such judgment upon competition in the relevant market or markets, upon the public generally and individuals alleging specific injury from the violations set forth in the complaint including consideration of the public benefit, if any, to be derived from a determination of the issues at trial.

15 U.S.C. § 16(e)(1)(A)-(B). In the CIS filed with the Court on December 6, 2018, the United States explained the meaning and proper application of the public interest standard under the APPA and now incorporates those portions of the CIS by reference.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth in this Motion and Memorandum and the CIS, the Court should find that the proposed Final Judgment is in the public interest and should enter the proposed Final Judgment without further proceedings. The United States respectfully requests that the proposed Final Judgment, Document 1-4 filed on December 6, 2018, attached hereto as Exhibit

2, be entered at this time.
