No need to list all the individual sellers. Just list the target.

Subject: Item 8 instructions

Kate,

Item 8 asks for the name and HQ address of the entity from which assets, voting securities or non-corporate interests were acquired. Is it permissible to put the name and address of the target instead? In our situation, on the other side there was a private equity firm that was not a controlling entity and a bunch of sellers. Do we need to put in the names of all of the individual sellers? I can get that from that stock purchase agreement, but I have no idea how I find their addresses.

Thanks.
