

Personal Comments

The business opportunity offered by Quixtar has given hope for the “American Dream” to my family and all those who have registered as my business partners.

The ease and hassle free way of both starting this business and operating the business has without a doubt been an attraction to those who have no prior business background.

Imposine the proposed restrictions and requirements will certainly rob many of those who would like to create additional income for their families.

Syd Williams