

July 8, 2006

Federal Trade Commission
Office of the Secretary
Room H-135 (Annex W.)
600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Business Opportunity Rule, Matter No. R511993

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to ask that you reconsider some of the requirements you are proposing to regulate the direct sales industry. I just recently got involved with company called Xango with hopes that I can work from home while raising a young family.

Xango has a $35 membership fee and a 100% money back guarantee. You are proposing a 7 day waiting period. The 7 day waiting period would hinder my efforts and others in starting their business. There is really not any risk with Xango. Don't regulate something as simple as a home based business.

The requirement to provide personal contact information is scary. How can this not become a huge privacy issue? I do not want my information given out freely nor do I want to give others information out. Too much proposed regulation in an industry that is doing so well and giving hope to so many people!

Don't take our chance away to provide more for our families.

Respectfully yours,

Amy Dixon

Additional commenters who submitted this form letter:

First Name	Last Name	Organization Name
Donald	Hedgebeth	Xango