

Carrie is a great host, kind, engaging and accommodating. The room is comfortable but the best part is Carrie and Happy themselves. Carrie offered so many suggestions for fun things to do, we'll have to return sometime to do them all.

I know I'm repeating what everyone else has written - it is already universally acknowledged that Carrie is an awesome host, right, everyone?

When I was staying in a hotel room, I'd have to drag myself back because the moment I parted with my friends, I felt awfully lonely. But things were so much different this time! I did look forward to going back "home". I knew the cheerful Carrie and the joyful Happy were there (and yes, Happy is the happiest and smartest dog!). It felt like home and I felt safe.

Now I've found a place to stay whenever I visit Dallas :))

Carrie was the consummate host. Her house was in a lovely area, quiet yet convenient to town. We thoroughly enjoyed our stay, and were grateful to Carrie and Ashley for sharing their supremely delicious Thanksgiving dinner with us!

C'est la 2eme fois que j'utilise Airbnb et c'était definitivement l'une des meilleures expériences de ma vie!!!!!! Carrie, sa fille Ashley et Happy sont tellement merveilleux!!!!!! J'avais l'impression d'être dans ma famille tellement je me sentais bien!!! Ces personnes sont vraiment merveilleuses et tellement généreuse ! J'ai pu pendant 10 jours vivre comme une vraie américaine grâce à elles et je ne pourrais jamais assez les remercier pour ça !!! Alors n'hésitez pas à rester chez Carrie car moi je n'hésiterai pas une seule seconde à séjourner chez Carrie encore si je reviens à Dallas un jour!!!!

My experience at Carrie's place made my trip to Dallas special. She went above and beyond her hosting duties, and has become a friend. And you have to like dogs because Happy is very excited to see new people. Happy is the sweetest dog in the world and lets you love on her. The condo is clean and comfortable and Carrie is very hospitable. I highly recommend this place during your stay in Dallas.

Carrie was an excellent host and her dog Happy is so cute & well-behaved you can't help but love her to bits! Carrie was so kind enough to spend the day showing me around Dallas and I was lucky enough to sample her martini drink :) The condo is well situated and has a warm cozy atmosphere. We'll definitely see each other again!
