

Opening Doors to Opportunity

Frauds Impacting Arizona Consumers & Businesses and Streamlining Government Regulation

January 9, 2018 • Renaissance Phoenix Downtown

The Federal Trade Commission and the Arizona Attorney General's Office invite you to attend the Arizona "Opening Doors to Opportunity" Conference. Conference participants will share experiences and challenges, make connections, and discuss how groups can better collaborate and share information and resources. The Conference will include speakers from the Arizona Attorney General's Office, the Federal Trade Commission, the Arizona Governor's Office, the Better Business Bureau, among others.

The agenda includes three panels covering a range of topics, including frauds and scams affecting Arizona consumers and businesses, reducing over-regulation of occupational licensing, supporting smart government regulation of financial technologies, and business and consumer education to protect against scams and computer hacking. Law enforcers also are invited to attend a second session to discuss law enforcement collaboration and to learn about new investigative tools and techniques.
