Dry Cleaners - US Market Research Report

Data Published: December 2017

Out to dry: Shifts in consumer preferences and rising competition will cause revenue to stagnate

Declining demand for professional dry cleaning services, unfavorable shifts in consumer preferences and increasing competition from coin-operated laundromats and household washing machines have led to this industry's decline in the past decade. Consequently, industry revenue is expected to decrease over the five years to 2017. IBISWorld expects industry revenue to continue declining over the five years to 2022, albeit at a faster rate. Despite positive outlooks on economic factors, unfavorable shifts in consumer preferences will continue to diminish demand for dry cleaning and full-service laundry...purchase to read more.
