On November 3, 2026, Appellant filed a Motion to Extend Time ("Motion") seeking an extension through November 11, 2026 "for the Appellant or both parties to file their proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and . . . supporting brief" due to Appellant's counsel having "a number of appearances and preexisting commitments since the October 23, 2026 order was entered." Motion at 1, 2. In addition, Appellant's counsel states that "[a] similar lengthy filing is due in a state court matter also on November 6, 2026" and that he "was hopeful that the filing could be timely made but at this point that appears unlikely." Id. at 1.

On November 3, 2026, OALJ emailed the parties, directing the Authority to indicate whether it had any objection to the Motion. The Authority replied the same day that it had no objection.
