MONETARY RELIEF, CIVIL PENALTY JUDGMENT, AND OTHER RELIEF

STIPULATED FINAL ORDER

1 Plaintiff, Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or “Commission”), filed its Complaint for 2 Permanent Injunction, Civil Penalties, Monetary Relief, and Other Equitable Relief (ECF No. 1), 3 subsequently amended as Amended Complaint for Permanent Injunction, Civil Penalties,
 4 Monetary Relief, and Other Equitable Relief (ECF No. 67) (hereinafter, “Complaint”), for a 5 permanent injunction, monetary relief, civil penalties, and other relief in this matter, pursuant to 6 Sections 5(m)(1)(A), 13(b), and 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C.
 7 §§ 45(m)(1)(A), 53(b) and 57b, and the Restore Online Shoppers’ Confidence Act (“ROSCA”), 15
 8 U.S.C. § 8404. The Commission, Defendant Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”), and Individual 9 Settling Defendants Neil Lindsay and Jamil Ghani (“Individual Settling Defendants”)
 10 (collectively, “Defendants”) stipulate to the entry of this Stipulated Order for Permanent 11 Injunction, Monetary Relief, Civil Penalty Judgment, and Other Relief (“Order”) to resolve all 12 matters in dispute between them in the action entitled, Federal Trade Commission v. Amazon.com, Inc. et al., Case No. 2:23-cv-0932-JHC (W.D. Wash.).

13 THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

14 FINDINGS

- 15 1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter.
- 16 2. The Complaint charges that Defendants violated Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15
 17 U.S.C. § 45, and Section 4 of ROSCA, 15 U.S.C. § 8403, in connection with Defendants’ 18 marketing and sale of its Amazon Prime subscription to consumers.
- 19 3. On September 17, 2025, the Court granted, in part, the Commission’s Partial 20 Motion for Summary Judgment, finding that the Amazon Prime subscription is subject to ROSCA; 21 Amazon obtains consumers’ billing information before it discloses all material terms for an 22 Amazon Prime subscription, in violation of Section 4 of ROSCA; and the Individual Settling 23 Defendants had the authority to control the subscription enrollment and cancellation flows for Amazon Prime. See Sept. 17, 2025 Order (ECF No. 492) at 16, 23, 30-32.

STIPULATED FINAL ORDER

1 4. Defendants neither admit nor deny any of the allegations in the Complaint, except 2 as specifically stated in this Order.

3 5. Defendants waive any claim that they may have under the Equal Access to Justice
4 Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action through the date of this Order, 5 and agree to bear their own costs and attorney fees.

6 6. Defendants waive all rights to appeal or otherwise challenge or contest the validity
7 of this Order.

2 Million Dollars ($2,500,000,000) in judgments as follows:

3 A. Judgment in the amount of One Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars
4 ($1,500,000,000) is entered in favor of the Commission against Amazon as monetary relief.

solely to the extent required to enforce the Commission's rights to any payment or monetary

STIPULATED FINAL ORDER

1 C. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an 2 action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C.
 3 § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

6 remain posted for the first 30 days of the Settlement Program.

7 2. Provide notice to Claims Process Eligible Consumers via electronic mail 8 and First-Class postage pre-paid mail (to the extent addresses are maintained by Amazon). The 11 obtain that approval before transmitting notices to Eligible Consumers; and 12 3. Establish a settlement website to provide Claims Process Eligible

23 D. Distribute redress to Eligible Consumers from the Consumer Fund through any

3 E. Within 16 months from the date of entry of this Order, complete all requirements
4 for the Sections of this Order titled Settlement Program and Consumer Fund Distribution Process.

6 X. CONSUMER FUND DISTRIBUTION PROCESS

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Consumer Fund shall be used to redress Eligible 8 Consumers, in order of priority, as follows:

9 A. Automatic Pay Out. For each Eligible Consumer who enrolled in an Amazon Prime 10 subscription through a Challenged Enrollment Flow, and who used no more than 3 Prime Benefits 11 in any 12-month period following enrollment, Amazon will pay that Eligible Consumer for the 12 total amount of Amazon Prime membership fees paid during the duration of that Amazon Prime 13 subscription, capped at Fifty-One Dollars ($51). Consumers do not need to submit a claims form 14 to receive payment under this Subsection. Amazon shall distribute payments to all Eligible 15 Consumers pursuant to this Subsection within 90 days of entry of this Order. To the extent the 16 total amount of payments otherwise due to Eligible Consumers under this Subsection exceeds the 17 total amount of funds in the Consumer Fund, payments to Eligible Consumers under this 18 Subsection shall be distributed on a pro rata basis.

19 B. Claims Process. Amazon shall establish and administer a Claims Process for all 20 Eligible Consumers that: (1) meet the criteria in Definition I.1 or I.2; and (2) used no more than 10
21 Prime Benefits during any 12-month period of enrollment in Prime (“Claims Process Eligible 22 Consumers”). Claims Process Eligible Consumers do not include any Eligible Consumers that 23 qualified for the Automatic Pay Out. The Claims Process shall operate as follows:

1. Within 30 days following the completion of Section X.A above, Amazon shall send a claims form to all Claims Process Eligible Consumers. The claims form shall permit the Claims Process Eligible Consumer to confirm that they were unintentionally enrolled in an

1 Amazon Prime subscription during the Relevant Time Period, unsuccessfully attempted to cancel
2 an Amazon Prime subscription during the Relevant Time Period, or both. The format and content
3 of the claims form must be approved, in writing, by the Associate Director of Enforcement, Bureau
4 of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission.

5 2. Claims Process Eligible Consumers will have up to 180 days after receiving 6 the claims form to submit it to Amazon via electronic mail, First-Class postage pre-paid mail, or 7 the settlement website;

8 3. For any claims form received from a Claims Process Eligible Consumer, 9 Amazon will have up to 30 days to review the claims form and determine whether the Claims 10 Process Eligible Consumer has a valid claim and is entitled to redress according to the 11 methodology outlined in Section X.B.4 below. Amazon may apply no other criteria to determine 12 whether a Claims Eligible Consumer has made a valid claim;

13 4. At the end of the process described in X.B.1-3, Amazon will pay all Claims 14 Process Eligible Consumers who submit valid claims for unintentional enrollment for the total 15 amount of Amazon Prime membership fees paid during the duration of their Amazon Prime 16 subscription, up to a maximum of Fifty-One Dollars ($51). At the end of the process described in 17 X.B.1-3, Amazon will pay all Claims Process Eligible Consumers who submit valid claims for 18 unsuccessful cancellation for the total amount of Amazon Prime membership fees paid following 19 the Claims Process Eligible Consumer's first unsuccessful cancellation attempt, up to a maximum 20 of Fifty-One Dollars ($51). Should the remaining funds in the Consumer Fund be insufficient to 21 fully redress all Claims Process Eligible Consumers who file a valid claim for up to the maximum 22 of Fifty-One Dollars ($51), Amazon shall pay such claims on a pro rata basis, taking into account 23 the total amount the Claims Process Eligible Consumer was eligible to receive under this Section and the number of Prime Benefits used following either their enrollment in Prime or their unsuccessful cancellation attempt. If claims must be paid on a pro rata basis, the Claims Supervisor and the Associate Director for Enforcement, Bureau of Consumer Protection must

1 approve in writing Amazon's proposal for pro rata distributions before such distributions are 2 made.

3 5. If after this Claims Process is complete, less than $1,000,000,000 in funds 4 have been paid out from the Consumer Fund (including the Automatic Pay Out), Amazon shall 5 continue to make additional rounds of automatic payments to Eligible Consumers until 6 $1,000,000,000 in funds are paid to consumers. These additional payments will start with Claims 7 Process Eligible Consumers who used no more than 4 Prime Benefits during a 12-month period.
8 Each of those Claims Process Eligible Consumers will be refunded their Prime membership fees, 9 capped at Fifty-One Dollars ($51). Amazon will continue to add groups to this automatic payout 10 by adding one benefit to the threshold (for example, assuming that condition is met, the next group 11 would be Claims Process Eligible Consumers who used no more than 5 Prime Benefits during a 12 12-month period), until $1,000,000,000 is paid out of the Consumer Fund.

12 XI. COURT-APPOINTED CLAIMS SUPERVISOR

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the FTC will nominate a Claims Supervisor for Court 14 approval within 14 days. In acting under this Order, the Claims Supervisor is an agent of this 15 Court, and solely the agent of this Court, and shall comply with its Orders. With the exception of 16 review of claims submitted by, or provided to, Claims Process Eligible Consumers pursuant to Consumers made pursuant to Section X.B, and ensure that Amazon's actions and review are done

1 in accord with the Section of this Order titled Consumer Fund Distribution Process, including by 2 ensuring that:

6 Process Eligible Consumers with valid claims comply with the Section of this Order titled 7 Consumer Fund Distribution Process; and 10 B. Within 3 months from the date of entry of this Order, and every 3 months thereafter 11 for a total of 18 months unless otherwise ordered by this Court, the Claims Supervisor shall submit 12 a report to the Court, with copies to the Commission and Amazon, concerning Amazon's

4 unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

5 D. Amazon shall in a timely manner provide the Claims Supervisor full access to all 6 documents and information necessary for the Claims Supervisor to fulfill the Claims Supervisor's 7 duties pursuant to this Order.

8 E. Amazon shall fully cooperate with any reasonable request of the Claims Supervisor
9 and shall take no action to interfere with or impede the Claims Supervisor's ability to monitor 10 Amazon' compliance with this Order.

11 F. The Claims Supervisor shall provide the Commission accounting or other 12 information related to Amazon's compliance with the Settlement Program and Consumer Fund 13 Distribution Process in this Order within 10 business days of a request, unless a longer time is 14 agreed to, in writing, by the Associate Director of Enforcement, Bureau of Consumer Protection, 15 at the Commission.

16 G. Amazon is responsible for all reasonable costs, fees, and expenses for the Claims 17 Supervisor, including such consultants, accountants, attorneys, and other representatives and
