- i. Financial Statement of Stipulating Individual Defendant Jason Masri, submitted March 18, 2025 and dated March 11, 2025, including all attachments, and including the amendments submitted March 20, 2025 and April 2, 2025;

J. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Stipulating Defendant if, upon motion by the FTC, the Court finds that Stipulating Defendant failed to disclose any material asset, materially misstated the value of any asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial attestations identified above.

K. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Stipulating Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the portion of consumer injury alleged in the Complaint for which the Stipulating Defendants are jointly and severally liable), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

L. Stipulating Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

M. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the FTC, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

N. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the FTC pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

O. Each Stipulating Defendant acknowledges that the Stipulating Defendant's Employer Identification Number, Social Security Number, or other Taxpayer Identification Number ("TIN"), including all TINs that Stipulating Defendants previously provided, may be used by the FTC for reporting and other lawful purposes, including collecting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

P. All money received by the FTC pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the FTC or its designee to be used for consumer relief, such as redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the FTC decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after such redress is completed, the FTC may apply any remaining money for such related relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury. Stipulating Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the FTC or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

Q. The freeze of Stipulating Defendants' assets imposed under Section III of the Stipulated Preliminary Injunction dated April 18, 2025 and entered on April 21, 2025 (Dkt. 83), is modified to permit the payments and transfers identified in the section titled Monetary Judgment and Partial Suspension. Upon completion of such payments and transfers, the asset freeze imposed under the Preliminary Injunction is dissolved as to Stipulating Defendants.

R. Stipulating Defendants must fully cooperate with the FTC and the Receiver as to the asset freeze and receivership. Stipulating Defendants must take all steps reasonably necessary to assist in the transfer of each asset identified in the section titled Monetary Judgment and Partial Suspension. If requested to execute appropriate documents, such as to liquidate, transfer, or assign any frozen asset, Stipulating Defendants must execute such documents within 3 days of a written request from a representative of the Commission or the Receiver.

B. Disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account (including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the marketing or sale of any good or service; and

C. Failing to destroy such customer information in all forms in their possession, custody, or control within 30 days after receipt of written direction to do so from a representative of the FTC.

Provided, however, that customer information need not be disposed of, and may be disclosed, to the extent requested by a government agency or required by law, regulation, or court order.

VI. COOPERATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Stipulating Defendants must fully cooperate with representatives of the FTC in this case and in any investigation related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the Complaint. Stipulating Defendants must provide truthful and complete information, evidence, and testimony. F. Sell the nonliquidated assets of the Stipulating Corporate Defendants using commercially reasonable procedures without further order of the Court.

H. Make payments and disbursements from the Receivership Estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order.
