ORDER SETTING CLOSING ARGUMENTS

Pursuant to Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) Rule of Practice 3.41(b)(6), each side shall be permitted to make a closing argument no later than 5 days after the last filed proposed findings. 16 C.F.R. § 3.41(b)(6). FTC Rule 4.3(b) authorizes the Administrative Law Judge to extend any time limit prescribed by the rules “[f]or good cause shown” 16 C.F.R. § 4.3(b). On April 11, 2022, the parties filed a Joint Motion Regarding Scheduling of Closing Argument (“Joint Motion”). In their Joint Motion, the parties represent that due to scheduling conflicts, lead trial counsel are unavailable to appear for closing arguments within five days of the date that has been set for filing the last proposed findings. The parties thus jointly request that the closing arguments be scheduled for June 8, 2022. The parties have demonstrated good cause for extending the time for holding closing arguments. The Joint Motion is GRANTED.

Closing arguments will be heard at 1:30 p.m. EDT on June 8, 2022, and will take place virtually via videoconference. The public may listen to the proceedings on the public audio line. The telephone number will be posted on the FTC website by the FTC Office of Public Affairs. Closing arguments will be limited to no more than two hours per side, not per party. 16 C.F.R. § 3.41(b)(6). Counsel are directed not to present any confidential or in camera information in closing arguments.
