JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR CAMELOT COMMUNICATIONS LTD. TO SEEK IN CAMERA TREATMENT OF DOCUMENTS

Pursuant to Rule 4.3(b) of the Federal Trade Commission’s Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.3(b), non-Party Camelot Communications Ltd. (“Camelot”) and Complaint Counsel for the Federal Trade Commission (“Complaint Counsel”) jointly move to extend the time for Camelot to seek in camera treatment of documents it produced, which may be introduced at the hearing in this matter. In support thereof, Camelot and Complaint Counsel state as follows:

1. On or about October 14, 2022, Complaint Counsel sent Camelot a Subpoena Duces Tecum (the “Subpoena”) containing requests for documents. Camelot received the Subpoena on October 17, 2022.
2. Counsel for Camelot and Complaint Counsel thereafter engaged in negotiations regarding the scope of the Subpoena and the time required for Camelot to produce responsive documents. After reaching agreement, Camelot began collecting and preparing documents for production.
3. On January 16, 2023, Camelot produced 22,140 documents, totaling 218,263 pages, to Complaint Counsel. All of these documents were designated Confidential pursuant to the Protective Order entered in this matter. Camelot has been working diligently to identify and collect other documents responsive to the Subpoena, which have yet to be produced.

4. On January 20, 2023, pursuant to FTC Rule 3.45(b) and paragraph 10 of the Protective Order in this matter, Complaint Counsel provided notice to Camelot of its intent to possibly introduce any and all material produced or to be produced by Camelot into evidence at the hearing.

5. Pursuant to the First Revised Scheduling Order entered in this proceeding, the deadline to move for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits is February 10, 2023.

6. Given the significant number of documents produced, the documents currently being collected, and the time needed to identify which potential trial exhibits may require confidential treatment, Camelot and Complaint Counsel agreed that Camelot (or any other affected party) should have until March 10, 2023 to move for in camera treatment of any documents produced by Camelot that may be introduced at the hearing.

7. Therefore, Camelot and Complaint Counsel request that this Court grant Camelot until March 10, 2023 to seek in camera treatment of trial exhibits.

8. Good cause exists for this extension to afford Camelot sufficient time to identify which of the documents produced requires in camera treatment.

Dated: February 6, 2023
