AARP

Speaker & Advisory Group Designee: Jilienne Gunther, Director, BankSafe Initiative

AARP is the nation’s largest nonprofit, nonpartisan organization dedicated to empowering people 50 and older to choose how they live as they age. With a nationwide presence and nearly 38 million members, AARP strengthens communities and advocates for what matters most to families: health security, financial stability and personal fulfillment. AARP also produces the nation's largest circulation publications: AARP The Magazine and AARP Bulletin.

AARP is committed to helping every American adequately protect their retirement savings in order to be independent as they age. Every year, criminals steal billions of dollars from consumers. AARP’s Fraud Watch Network gives consumers the tools to help spot and stop fraud before they become a victim. Through federal and state advocacy, AARP has helped enact laws and regulations that protect the public. And AARP’s BankSafe Initiative is a game-changing intervention platform focused on financial-exploitation prevention for frontline employees at banks, credit unions, investment firms, retailers and other providers of financial products and services. Since its launch in 2019, BankSafe has helped save an estimated $117 million on behalf of consumers.

AmeriCorps

Speaker & Advisory Group Designee: Atalaya Sergi, Director of AmeriCorps Seniors

AmeriCorps, the federal agency for volunteerism and national service, provides opportunities for Americans to serve their country domestically, address the nation’s most pressing challenges, improve lives and communities, and strengthen civic engagement. Each year, the agency invests in grants for local nonprofit, community, tribal, and state organizations; places more than 250,000 AmeriCorps members and AmeriCorps Seniors volunteers in intensive service roles; and empowers millions more to serve as long-term, short-term, or one-time volunteers. Learn more at AmeriCorps.gov.

AmeriCorps Seniors is one of the oldest programs in the federal agency of AmeriCorps and provides grants to local nonprofits, community, tribal, and public organizations to engage adults age 55 and above in national service. AmeriCorps Seniors volunteers support critical community challenges by volunteering locally and bringing their talents, skills, and life experiences to that service. For more than five decades, older volunteers have been serving their communities through the three signature programs of AmeriCorps Seniors – Foster Grandparent Program, RSVP, and Senior Companion Program – and through Senior Demonstration Programs that test new volunteer models for older adults. AmeriCorps Seniors grantees can be found in all 50 states and the U.S. territories of Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

Speaker & Advisory Group Designee: Deborah Royster, Assistant Director of Office for Older Americans

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) aims to make consumer financial markets work for consumers, responsible providers, and the economy as a whole. We protect consumers from unfair, deceptive, or abusive practices and take action against companies that break the law. We arm people with the information, steps, and tools that they need to make smart financial decisions.

The CFPB’s Office for Older Americans develops initiatives, tools, and resources to help protect older consumers from financial harm and empower older consumers to make sound financial decisions. As part of that work, we have created a variety of fraud prevention resources for consumers, caregivers, advocates and financial institutions. Our Money Smart for Older Adults curriculum, developed with the FDIC, helps older adults, family caregivers, and others prevent, recognize, and report scams, fraud, and financial exploitation. The curriculum includes Managing Someone Else’s Money guides for financial caregivers as well as fraud prevention placemats and activity sheets. In addition, we offer reports and advisories for financial institutions on reporting suspected elder financial exploitation. Our resources can be found at consumerfinance.gov/olderamericans.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Speaker & Advisory Group Designee: Emerson Hall, Associate Director of Community Affairs

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is an independent agency created by the Congress to maintain stability and public confidence in the nation’s financial system. The FDIC insures deposits; examines and supervises financial institutions for safety, soundness, and consumer protection; makes large and complex financial institutions resolvable; and manages receiverships.

The FDIC Money Smart award-winning financial education programs help people of all ages maintain financial stability by enhancing their financial skills and promoting positive banking relationships. Money Smart for Older Adults, developed jointly by the FDIC and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, also raises awareness among older adults and their caregivers on ways to prevent elder financial exploitation and encourages informed financial decision-making.

The Money Smart for Older Adults curriculum consists of an instructor guide, presentation materials, and a take-home resource guide, which are available at no cost for download in English and Spanish at fdic.gov/MoneySmart. Additionally, FDIC’s How Money Smart Are You? is a suite of 14 online games and related resources about everyday financial topics.
