Statement of Commissioner Noah Joshua Phillips

August 8, 2022

Today I sent a letter to President Biden informing him that I intend to resign my position as Federal Trade Commissioner this Fall. Serving the American people by working with my extraordinary fellow commissioners and the incredible career staff at the agency to protect American consumers has been the honor of my lifetime. I have learned so much from all my colleagues over the last four years and am inspired by the commitment that they bring to the incredible work of the FTC. Over the coming weeks, I look forward to working with my fellow commissioners and all FTC staff to further our mission of protecting competition and consumers.
