

Hearings on Competition and Consumer Protection in the 21st Century

An FTC-GW Competition Law Center | March 25-26, 2019

The FTC's Role in a Changing World

FTC Headquarters, Room 432

The hearing will explore the FTC's international role in light of globalization, technological change, and the increasing number of competition, consumer protection, and privacy laws and enforcement agencies around the world. Speakers will address the implications of international developments on the FTC's work on behalf of American consumers.

Day 1

| | |
|----------------------|---|
| 9:00-9:05am | Welcome |
| 9:05-9:15am | Introductory Remarks |
| 9:15-9:45am | Setting the International Scene |
| 9:45-11:15am | Building Enforcement Cooperation for the 21st Century |
| 11:15-11:30am | Break |
| 11:30-1:00pm | Consumer Protection and Privacy Enforcement Cooperation |
| 1:00-2:15pm | Lunch Break |
| 2:15-3:30pm | Competition Enforcement Cooperation |
| 3:30-3:45pm | Break |
| 3:45-5:15pm | International Engagement and Emerging Technologies: Artificial Intelligence Case Study |

Day 2

| | |
|-----------------------|---|
| 9:00-9:05am | Welcome |
| 9:05-10:20am | Implications of Different Legal Traditions and Regimes for International Cooperation |
| 10:20-10:35am | Break |
| 10:35-12:05pm | Promoting Sound Policies for the Next Decade |
| 12:05pm-1:20pm | Lunch Break |
| 1:20-2:35pm | Effective International Engagement: Foreign Agency Perspectives |
| 2:35-2:50pm | Break |
| 2:50-4:20pm | The FTC's Role in a Changing World |
| 4:20-4:30pm | Closing Remarks |